Tot drowns off shore of Lake Marie

MARY FOLEY
Staff Reporter

Three-year old Ashley Wojtuliewicz, of Schiller Park, lost her life on Sunday. Wojtuliewicz and her family were visiting at Spiro's East Resort on Lake Marie when she drowned.

It is believed Wojtuliewicz was playing on the shoreline with a toy boat. She was found later in the water.

"We don't know," said Deputy Coroner Jim Whipper about how the accident occurred. "We really don't know."

There were no witnesses to the accident so it is unknown how the child drowned. However, it is believed the child had been in the water for about 10 minutes.

"No one knows how long," said Ed Macek of the Antioch Rescue Squad. "It was a bad call." See DROWNING page A10

Volunteers complete building in two weekends

MARY FOLEY
Staff Reporter

A building seemed to appear, magically on Grass Lake Road over this weekend. The new Antioch Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses was constructed during the course of two weekends by more than 200 volunteers a day.

The new building is located just west of Grass Lake Road and Route 83. While the plumbing work was done in advance, most of the more visible work was completed during the last two weekends.

"It is all done in the praise of God," said one volunteer. "And, it was all done by volunteers."

The 120-member congregation had been meeting in Round Lake. But, with the new building, members of the church now have their own meeting place.

"It is an ideal location for everybody in the congregation," said the volunteer. Those who will be using the new facility live in Antioch, Lake Villa, Lindenhurst and other far northern areas. At this time, Jehovah's Witnesses meet in Zion, Round Lake, and Libertyville.

The new building is about 90 percent completed at this point. Plans for the landscaping work are already on the drawing board.

ACHS students to be offered swim lessons

MARY FOLEY
Staff Reporter

Antioch Community High School will now be offered swimming lessons courtesy of an agreement between the Village of Antioch and the school. The lessons will be held during school hours in the month of September.

"Mr. Wapon approached me about using the pool to teach high school physical education classes," Parks Director Cheryl McCameron told the board. "The Park Board unanimously felt it was a good idea."

According to ACHS Teacher Steve Wapon, up to 400 students will be offered the lessons. "We plan to test every freshman first," said Wapon. He said an optional program could be available to junior and seniors.

"It wouldn't be everyone, but it would be a good start," Wapon told the village board.

Students would be bused to the village's pool in Williams Park. On hand will be a WSI certified ACHS staff member, one WSI certified parks department employee, along with parent volunteers to help observe.

In exchange for the use of the pool, the Village of Antioch will be using the high school auditorium for the Miss and Little Miss Antioch Pageants. The pageants will be held June 23 and 24.

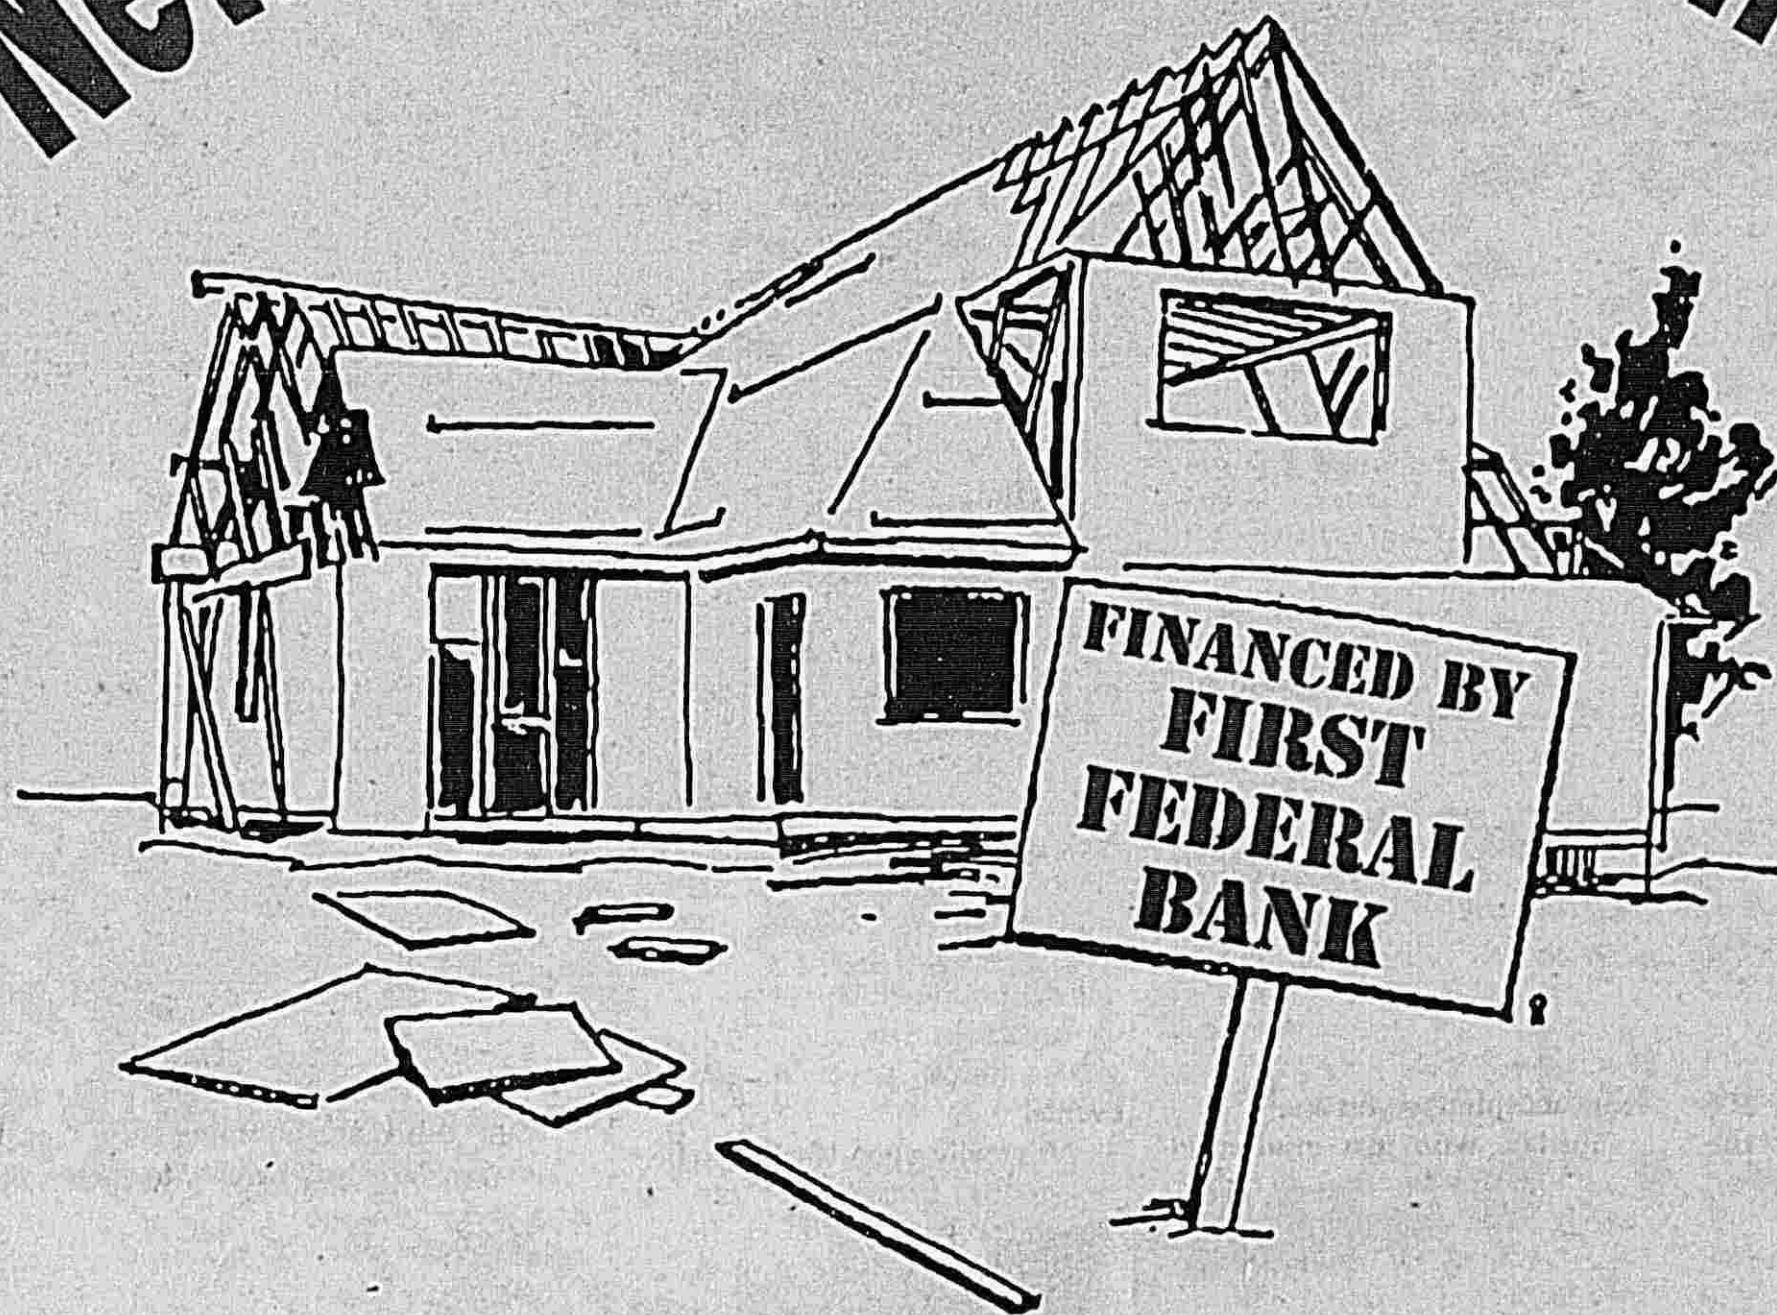

September was chosen because students are back in school at that time. See LESSONS page A10

No precinct boundary changes here

The plan to change the boundaries in Precincts 14 and 15 died in committee on Tuesday. County Board Member Judy Martini (Dist.-1) presented a letter from Precinct Committeeman Lillian Golonka, requesting the change not be made.

Golonka's precinct currently extends from Route 173 to Grass Lake Road and Route 83 to Deep Lake Road. The proposed changes would have extended that precinct to Route 45. Instead, plans are now to wait until the two precincts become larger and then split them.

Antioch High School cheerleaders do a cheer for COURAGE at the Fun Fair which celebrated viewing of Project COURAGE, a documentary on ABC Channel 7.

Teens speak out after TV debut

ALEC JUNG

Staff Reporter

A community outreach devoted to preventing gangs had a seminar of gang prevention to celebrate being on prime-time TV.

Community Outreach Uniting Residents Against Gang Environment (COURAGE) was profiled on Channel 7 WLS-TV in Chicago last weekend. The four-community effort of Antioch, Grayslake, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst now has over 100 members and nowhere is the enthusiasm more evident than in the youth group.

Youth group members shared what they feel about the group and how COURAGE leads them in the right direction.

"If I have a problem there is someone in the group I can talk to," said Lake Villa resident Tiffani Priday. "They are always there for you."

Grayslake resident and Grayslake High School Senior Sean Rafferty said COURAGE is a positive outlet which helps keep him away from things such as drugs, alcohol and gangs.

"If I didn't have the group and my friends I might be out doing those kind of things," Rafferty said.

Future Grayslake High School Junior Brooke Vaught says she likes the accepting nature of the group.

"People accept you for what you are, no matter what you look like," Vaught said. "It's really nice to be accepted as you are."

Priday, who just graduated eighth-grade, is a new member, having joined just a few months ago. She regularly attends meetings and says she appreciates that the group doesn't pre-judge people.

"It doesn't matter what you did before as long as you don't keep doing it when they join the group," Priday said.

"Instead of going out and drinking I can call my friends in COURAGE instead," Vaught said.

The teen group focuses on the 12-17 age group. These teens have been busy organizing events, taking trips, assisting seniors and helping area organizations.

Only a month ago, about 30 members of the youth group assisted in the Lake Villa Township Senior/ Disabled clean-up. Many group members also helped the Lindenhurst Park District prepare A Haunted Trail.

The youth group meets once a week to discuss issues and plan activities. They help create the events themselves and the adult group helps supervise these events.

"It's really a good feeling to be able to plan things," Priday said. "We like to plan things," Rafferty added.

"It breaks down the stereotype that teens are slackers and lazy who don't want to do anything," Vaught said.

The group was created last year as a way to discourage gangs and act as a clearing house of information about gangs. The group has since blossomed and continues its prevention, education and intervention efforts.

COURAGE sponsored a seminar with guest speakers and had a rollerblading to coincide with the documentary.

CAUSE to continue fight

MARY FOLEY

Staff Reporter

Despite a disappointing loss with the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC), Citizens Against Unsafe Electricity (CAUSE) plans to continue to oppose the installation of overhead power lines in Lake Villa and Antioch.

"It's not over yet," said County Board Member Suzi Schmidt, who is also a member of CAUSE. "We are going to be working with the Army Corps of Engineers."

CAUSE and Commonwealth Edison have been battling the question of whether or not the 138 kilowatt service proposed by Edison is needed. The issue was settled when the ICC determined Commonwealth Edison had shown a need for the overhead power lines.

"They (the ICC) paid no attention to our evidence," said Schmidt. "They took only three seconds to make a decision. It is really a shame all of our work fell on deaf ears."

While disappointed at this turn of events, CAUSE members believe they may be able to stop the new overhead lines through public support of wetland protection. The new lines, which will cross through all of Lake Villa and the southern part of Antioch, will be placed in protected wetland areas including Cedar and Loon Lakes.

At this time, Commonwealth Edison has not applied for any of the necessary permits to put the line in. If and when they do, CAUSE plans to mount a letter writing campaign in an attempt to halt the project. However, until permits are applied for, it is a waiting game for the group.

Despite the loss at the ICC, CAUSE members feel they have accomplished a great deal through their efforts. "We did increase public awareness," said Schmidt. "And, we got the power lines buried at Peter Palombi School (formerly Lake Villa Intermediate)."

Fire Department to flip flapjacks for funds

MARY FOLEY

Staff Reporter

The Antioch Fire Department will hold its first annual pancake breakfast on Sunday, June 25, at the fire station. The breakfast will be held from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. with an open house to follow from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The pancake breakfast is the only major fund raiser for the Antioch Firefighters Association. The breakfast will replace the annual fireman's dance.

Money generated by the pancake breakfast is used to pay for educational programs throughout the year. In 1994 alone, more than 3,000 school children were taught about fire safety during Fire Prevention Month.

Younger students learned about the emergency 911 system, how to check smoke detectors, how to use escape routes in the home, and about some of the gear worn by firefighters. Older students were able to watch an actual fire call using a mock house and a real fire.

In addition to the Fire Prevention Month activities, the association also held informational sessions geared towards senior citizens, civic organizations, and the general public. The Antioch Fire Department is a prominent participant at the Taste of Antioch with their Fire Safety House. The house helps children visualize how to get out of their homes safely in the event of a fire.

Along with the pancake breakfast, the association will also be selling raffle tickets to help offset the costs of fire education. Tickets were mailed to Antioch residents with an introductory letter. To purchase a raffle ticket, fill out the ticket stubs and mail a check to the association in the enclosed envelope.

To obtain additional tickets, call 395-5511. Tickets cost $1 each or six for $5. Tickets can also be obtained at the Antioch Fire Station during the breakfast. First prize for the raffle is $500 cash, with a second prize of $300 and third prize of $200. Other prizes, donated by local area merchants, can also be won.

After breakfast, tour the fire station and the equipment. Various fire fighting demonstrations are also planned during the day.

Bug spraying to begin

Mosquito control will begin in Felters Subdivision this week. The association board approved a contract for spraying to reduce this year's booming crop of pesky insects. With any luck, residents will be able to once again use their yards.

Postal food drive

The Antioch Community Food Pantry thanks the Antioch Letter Carriers and their postal patrons who participated in the food drive last month. The food drive, which was part of a national effort, was co-sponsored by the US Postal Service and United Way. Letter carriers picked up non-perishable food donations from patrons along their routes as they delivered mail. As a result, the donations added to the shelves of the Antioch Community Food Pantry.

Arts and crafts fair

On June 17 and 18, the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry will host the June Antioch Arts and Craft Faire. Artisans and crafters from around the country will display their wares during the two day event on Toft Avenue in Antioch. In addition to the Faire will be the Antioch Showcase, which will include wares from area merchants. For more information call 395-2233.

Rummage sale preparations

The 36th Annual St. Peter Church Rummage Sale is beginning to get underway. Donations are now being accepted at St. Peter School from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. until June 21. Donations may be tax deductible. If you are unable to get your donations to the school, call 395-6744 to arrange for a pick up. The sale will be held June 22, 23, 24, and 25.

Church plans auction for missions

The Antioch Evangelical Free Church is hosting a spaghetti dinner at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, June 11 followed by a silent and vocal auction at 1:30 p.m. Items have been donated by merchants and members of the community. Among the items for auction include services such as lawn mowing and babysitting. Funds are being raised for the teen group to do a mission program this summer for the homeless. The church is located at 750 Highview at the intersection of Highview and Tiffany. For more information call 395-4117.

Seniors Day Celebration

The 23rd Annual Seniors Day Celebration will be held in Lakewood Forest Preserve near Wauconda on June 21. For more information or transportation assistance call 395-3378.

Resident stabbed in apartment

MARY FOLEY

Staff Reporter

Erin Greca, 29, of Antioch is recovering after a stabbing incident in his home on June 2. The assailant is still at large.

Greca told police he was sitting in a Main Street apartment watching television at 4:30 a.m. with the front door unlocked. According to Greca, an unknown white male entered the front door and went into the kitchen.

An argument ensued and Greca told police the man grabbed a kitchen knife and stabbed Greca all the way through the left forearm and fled. Greca removed the knife himself and called the Antioch Rescue Squad.

Greca was taken to St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan where he underwent surgery. He was released on June 3.

The offender is described as a white male approximately 20 years of age, weighing 170 pounds and 6-feet tall. Greca told police the man had shoulder-length blonde hair.

The Antioch Police Department are investigating the incident. Greca told police he did not know his assailant and had no idea why the event occurred.

Oddly enough, Greca recently had contact with the Antioch Police Department for another incident. Greca had turned himself in on May 27 for an outstanding warrant for criminal damage to property. At that time, Greca listed his address as Grayslake.

Permit required for use of fireworks

MARY FOLEY

Staff Reporter

The Village of Antioch will again be clamping down on the sale of fireworks. Residents should be aware of the fact that possession and use of fireworks without a permit is prohibited by the State of Illinois. A permit must be issued before fireworks can be discharged.

"Over the past several years, I have met many people who have received injuries as a result of playing with fireworks," Antioch's Public Safety Director, Lee Shannon said. "Fireworks are not toys and are to be treated as extremely dangerous."

According to state law, permits may be granted to groups of three or more adults, a bond of $1,000 or more is required, and a site inspection of the display area must be done. The state very specifically permits only sparklers, snakes, glow worm pellets, smoke devices, and noise makers.

Residents with questions about the possession or discharge of fireworks should call either Antioch Police Department, if in the village, or the Lake County Sheriff's Department, in the township.

Congratulations to all you Antioch area graduates

I would like to congratulate those of you who will be or already have graduated from junior high, high school or college. Graduating from any grade is quite a major milestone in one's life and should be recognized as such.

To those of you who have just graduated from junior high, you will probably have the toughest road ahead of you. In junior high you were the top bananas, the head honchos, the most respected, the most feared, you were kings of the school. Well, young ladies and gentlemen, I hate to deflate that over-inflated ego, but next year when you start high school you will be the low man on the totem pole! Get ready to suffer at the hands of the upper classmen—especially if you have an older sibling already in high school.

To high school graduates, this is your time of independence. Whether it be off to the college of your choice or out into the work world, most of you will be on your own for the first time—away from curfews, chores and that family quality time. Yes, you will be out there supporting yourself, paying bills, or perhaps skipping classes and having beer chugging contests. In the back of your mind, though, you still have that security that if things get a little tight or ends just don't seem to meet, mom and dad always have a well stocked refrigerator and plenty of laundry soap.

For those of you who are graduates of college and have that certificate in your hand proclaiming you are now qualified to perform your chosen field, the only advice I can offer is—welcome to the real world! Now is when you will find yourself settling down, finding a decent job, getting married, having 2.3 children, buying a house and a sensible car, rearranging your priorities and turning into your parents! Just wait, you'll see what I'm talking about. Oh, it might not happen tomorrow or the next day but that eye opening day will sneak up on you before you know it and slap you square in the face one morning while your looking at the reflection in the mirror or groaning as you get up out of bed. Congratulations, and all the best to you in your futures.

Rummage sale

By now you are all probably aware that the Fireman's Dance will no longer be on the summer itinerary for the town of Antioch, but the St. Peter's Annual Rummage Sale is still going strong. It is a great opportunity for you to get rid of all that stuff that has piled up in your garage and basement over the winter months. They are looking for any items you are tired of: big, little, old, new, even ugly as long as it works, is clean or has a viable purpose—they will take it.

Now, if you have items that need to be picked up or stored, just call one of these people and consider yourself free of that unwanted object: Claudette, 395-6744; Larry, 356-6919; or Richie, 395-8126. If you have treasures to donate and would like to drop them off, you can do so at the school between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Some of the items that are needed are washers, dryers, stoves, dishwashers, antiques, indoor and outdoor furniture, tools, linens, cars, boats, motorcycles, sports equipment, toys, clothes, jewelry or small appliances. Please don't drop off children, pets or in-laws, as they don't sell well. The actual sale will take place June 22, 23, 24 and 25, so mark your calendars.

It's my turn

We all know I have a tendency to take an ordinary situation, see a little imperfection, and run wild with it. There have been a lot of folks in this town who have been at my mercy in recent weeks and, well folks, this time I have to turn the tables on myself.

I usually don't get ruffled even in the most desperate situation, but that didn't hold true on a typical shopping excursion one Thursday. All was going quite smoothly, shopping was progressing nicely, we all had our positions in or on the cart, nobody was touching anybody else, and we managed to pass through the produce section without a single piece of fruit being dislodged from its display.

We reached the meat department and I was busily checking on the daily fare when my darling little military pre-school-bound Stephanie inquires as to "why that lady right there has a beard."

You must realize that this child has a real problem with beards and mustaches, as just that morning she was reprimanding her daddy for not shaving his off as she had requested. The unshakable one here stood with my chin somewhere around my knees—for the woman had to have heard, she was only three steps away from my entourage. With Stephanie's cherub little voice, the cashiers at the front of the store probably hears her comment.

Now, we are not talking that this lady had a full-fledged beard like in the circus, but there was a definite five-o'clock shadow spreading across her chin and upper lip. I know I should have turned to this poor soul, who didn't even flinch but probably wanted to crawl away as badly as I did, but my gutless, spineless personality kicked in and I fled the scene of the crime as quick as my Nike's would take me.

Now I have felt just awful since the moment of my about-face, and I would just like to apologize to this woman whoever and wherever she may be. I know I should have explained to Stephanie that we do not talk about people that way or stare at others that may be a little different than us, and I did all this later in the privacy of our own home—but by then it was too late, as she had little recollection of the whole ordeal. Stephanie has said a lot of wild things since her lips developed a mind of their own, but it's never been so revealing or so unavoidable. I have failed as a parent, for I am sure Dr. Spock would have handled the whole situation much differently. Then again, if I had married a famous doctor I wouldn't have to be cruising the grocery stores with an unruly child. So whoever you are and where you may be, please accept my apology.

And so goes another "Jingle from Pringle." Don't forget to call 395-6364.

Artisans, crafters gather in Antioch June 17, 18

On Saturday and Sunday, June 17 and 18, the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry will host the June Antioch Arts and Craft Faire. Artisans and crafters from around the country will display their wares during two days of fun and entertainment.

The Chamber is hosting a "juried" Faire this year that will guarantee a first-quality, professional affair. Booths will be erected up and down Toft St., enabling plenty of room for displays and crowds. This weekend promises to provide plenty of fun and entertainment for the whole family, rain or shine. Street entertainment planning is underway, hoping to provide folk guitarists, jugglers and other entertainers, both amateur and professional.

Quality and variety play key roles in the Chamber's rejuvenated Faire. Artisans and crafters will display wares that include bronzes, ceramics, woodcrafts, metal and brass, florals, birdhouses, wreaths, Barbie clothes, candles, magnets, hand painted clothes, Santas, fake-fur animals, wind chimes, doll clothes, hair bows, baskets, vases, planters, walking sticks—just to name a few.

A new addition to the Faire is the "Antioch Showcase" section which will display wares from area merchants. Merchants will be featuring their products and giving demonstrations of products and services throughout the two-day Faire. All purchases from the Showcase area featuring local businesses will be directed to the individual shops.

There is still limited space available for interested artisans and crafters. Due to a late start this year in selecting the Faire's date, some interested applicants were unable to participate. Because of the heavy interest in the Faire, the chamber has decided to host a second Faire this fall. Mark your calendar for the weekend of Sept. 9 and 10. The chamber is currently accepting applications for the September Faire. Merchants interested in the Antioch Showcase for September may submit their applications now.

For further information on Faire schedules and booth availability, contact the Antioch Chamber of Commerce at 395-2233, or write them at 884 Main St., Antioch, IL 60002.

Editor's note: Shop Antioch is a weekly newsletter showcasing Antioch's merchants and retailers. Prepared and written by Barbara Porch of Choosey Child.

Troop 92 receives village flag

Boy Scout Troop 92 requested and received a Village of Antioch flag during the regular board meeting Monday night. In addition, some of the boys will receive merit badges for attending a government meeting.

"We are very pleased with the work you have done for Antioch," said Mayor Marilyn Shineflug as she presented the young men with the large village flag.

The troop had requested the flag after attending other Boy Scout parades and seeing other municipal flags.

Residents will be able to see Troop 92 and their new flag during the Independence Day parade on 4th of July weekend.

"Troop 92 has helped this community every time we have asked them," said Antioch's Downtown Development Director Claude LeMere.

Know the village rules on wheels

MARY FOLEY
Staff Reporter

As the summer season begins, more and more bicycles, skateboards and skates can be seen on the roads. But, before hitting the streets, it is important to know the rules and regulations concerning public safety.

The Village of Antioch intends to enforce an ordinance regulating the use of bicycles, skateboards and skates. Individuals caught violating this ordinance are subject to fines of not less than $25 and not more than $500.

Except in the business district, bicycle riders should use any public path or sidewalk adjacent to the street and not ride in the streets or roadways.

But, riders must ride in the streets in the central business district of Antioch. The business district includes Orchard Street, from Hillside to Main; Main Street from Wilton to Depot; and on Lake Street from Hillside to Main.

The regulations for skaters are the same as for bicycle operators.

In addition, both must follow all Illinois traffic rules including stopping for school buses.

Skateboarders are not allowed to ride on village streets, sidewalks in the business district, or in parking lots. In order to operate on a private road or parking lot skateboarders must get written consent from the owner.

Furthermore, being pulled by a motor vehicle while on a skateboard violates the ordinance.

These rules and regulations are for both the safety of the operators and the general public. With school ending soon, parents should take special note of these regulations and instruct their children accordingly.

FROM THE CAPITAL

US Cong. Phillip M. Crane (R)

Republicans deliver budget promise

A plan for a balanced budget with a tax cut in seven years. Opponents said we couldn't do it. But House Republicans did it.

The House passed the plan of the new majority party in that chamber by a 238 to 193 vote.

It is a plan that will bring back sanity to our federal spending without setting the stage for a recession. This proposal does not abruptly pull hundreds of billions of dollars from the nation's spending pattern.

What it does do is reduce the increase in the amount of money we will spend to carry out the government operation.

Overall spending would continue to grow over the next seven years, but at a slower rate than currently anticipated, and a savings of $1.4 trillion.

The deficit will plunge from an estimated $210 billion in 1996 to a $1-billion surplus in 2002.

Medicare is an example of a slower rate of increased spending. Under our plan, Medicare spending would total $288 billion less than projections.

The Medicare reductions are in place because we cut the anticipated growth in spending from 10 percent to 7.1 percent. That's a reduction in the increase—not a cut in Medicare spending. More money will be spent on Medicare in the future than now, but at a judicious rate.

We'll cut foreign aid by a third—a long overdue move.

Defense spending will increase slightly.

We want to drastically reduce the federal bureaucracy by wiping out three departments—Commerce, Education and Energy—and eliminating 369 other agencies, programs and commissions.

And we were able to develop this plan while approving a tax cut which includes a $500-per-child tax credit for most families and a reduction in the capital gains tax.

There is a sad note to this happy story. Democrats refused to join us in the deficit reduction struggle. Their battle cry was one word—"no." With the exception of a plan by a group of conservative members, Democrats had no ideas of their own to cut the deficit.

To make matters worse, even as we fought to cut federal spending, President Clinton threatened to veto any bill we sent to the White House which called for the rescission of $16 billion in government spending. Republicans in Congress were doing their utmost to bring a halt to deficit spending, and the president warns us not to send him legislation designed to cut the deficit by $16 billion!

Lake Catherine receives herbicide treatment

MARY FOLEY

Staff Reporter

Integrated Lakes Management, overseen by the Lake County Health Department, did an herbicide treatment on Lake Catherine at Felter's Subdivision last week. The chemical used was 2,4-D, which is an herbicide specifically targeted for watermilfoil.

In order to insure the safety of residents, signs were posted around the perimeter, along with a snow fence, indicating water use restrictions. Even when residents have already returned to the water, Jim Bland, owner of Integrated Lakes Management suggests a continued moratorium for irrigation and the use of the weeds for mulch for an additional two to four weeks.

"Flyers were also distributed to residents," said Association President Carole Jonites. "This was to make sure people knew of the application."

The chemical 2,4-D was used last year in Lake Catherine and has been used extensively in Michigan against the watermilfoil. The granular form was selected because it was going to be used on a relatively small area, and that form can be controlled better.

"It worked very well last year," said Jonites. "Residents have just started complaining about the weed problem again."

The association hand raked the weeds on a daily basis before the chemical application. The weeds, which make an excellent mulch, are available to gardeners and are located for the taking in the Felter's Association parking lot. Weeds removed after the chemical treatment will be stored in a different pile.

Antioch police investigate burglary Lessons parked in the new vehicle lot at Raymond Chevrolet/Oldsmobile Auto Sales, 120 Rte. 173, Antioch.

Crime Stoppers and the Antioch Police Dept. are seeking information regarding a theft investigation.

time. During that month the weather is usually quite warm, said McCameron, and the pool is not in use by the public during weekdays.

Wapon assured village board members the school will insure the students while swimming lessons take place. "We would supply you with certificates of insurance," said Wapon. "Our Business Manager Mr. Ahler is working with our insurance company to prepare the papers you need."

Drowning

The incident occurred at 2 p.m. A member of the Salem Rescue Squad, who had been at Spiros at the time attempted to resuscitate the child with no success. Both the Lake County Sheriff's Department and the Antioch Rescue Squad responded to the scene.

Having children of his own, Macek was very upset by the accident. He said everyone involved in the attempted rescue was affected by it.

"Most of the nurses were in tears," he said. The child was pronounced dead at Victory Memorial Hospital.

Sherry Ultsch, who lives near Spiros, rushed to the scene when she heard a little girl had drowned. Her daughter sometimes plays near there and for several seconds she imagined the worst.

"All I saw was the little gym shoes," said Ultsch. "I saw it was not my daughter, I said a prayer, and I left."

Boys track reflects on record-breaking year

KEVIN HANRAHAN

Staff Reporter

If success breeds more success, then this year's boys track team certainly gave future teams plenty to pursue.

For the second consecutive year, Antioch finished undefeated (8-0) in conference dual meets, only to lose the conference title to Zion-Benton by points both years at the conference meet.

"Unfortunately, we couldn't get a co-championship," said Coach Norm Hahn, who believes dual meets should be counted more in the final tallies after the conference meet.

Also highlighting this year's accomplishments was winning the Lake Forest Invitational, which was the first time Antioch claimed that title in 33 years.

But topping this year's list of distinctions was the four school records Antioch tracksters shattered this year. Some of the records were more than 30 years old.

Brad Rubash added his name to the record books in three separate events. At the state track meet, he set the school record in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles with a :39.6. Prior to the state track meet, he broke the 110-meter hurdles record with a :14.5. Rubash was also part of the record-breaking 400-meter relay team.

As if to validate their time in the record books, the 400-meter relay team of Rubash, Joe Earl, Matt Fasana and Jon Schulz ran a :44.7 twice this year.

Kevin Erickson made school history in the 800-meter run. At the state track meet, he shaved 6-tenths of a second off the old record with a time of 1:55.8.

"It's really going to be a tough group of kids to lose," Hahn said. "Four new school records out of 18 events is pretty good. This was a great group of guys."

The track team also boasted seven All-Academic Team members including seniors Fasana, Dave Lawrence, Schulz, Steve Spronk and Nick Ballinger, and juniors Kevin Fasana and Bill Bell.

"It's always nice to honor the kids who excel in both athletics and academics," Hahn noted.

Although track lacks some of the glory and glamour associated with winning football and basketball teams, Hahn believes he does have a nucleus to build a solid team for next year.

"Because this group was so successful, hopefully we can rebuild," Hahn said.

Several hopefuls will be returning next year.

Junior Kevin Fasana tinkered with breaking records in the long and triple jump events. "I'm looking for him to break those records next year. He's a real athlete," Hahn said.

In the field events, Hahn will be looking forward to seeing Jon Migalla, Lance May and Brian Dembinski take charge. Ken Bratton, a sophomore, looks promising in long-distance events. Jason Erlenbourn, a sophomore, will lead Antioch in the hurdles and pole vault, while Brian Forth, another sophomore, will make his contribution to the relay teams.

David Gooch, who set three freshmen records this year in the hurdles, discus and relays, is expected to move up to the varsity level next year. "He can pretty much do anything he wants," Hahn said.

Overall, Hahn hopes interest in track increases due the winning performances the last two years. Seventeen seniors will be missed next year.

"We'll be young," Hahn noted. "There's no doubt about that."

But then again, this year's record-breaking squad began young as well.

Antioch Travelers post 5-1 start in league play

Strong pitching and defense have stepped in to make up for a slacking hitting attack as the Antioch Travelers have chalked up a 5-1 start in league play.

The 13- and 14-year old traveling team opened its season with an 8-3 victory over Avon. Pitching and defense keyed the Travelers.

In his first outing, Ryan Clutts pitched four strong innings before Dan Shaunessey came in to relieve Clutts with bases loaded. Shaunessey pitched out of the bases-loaded jam.

In the bottom of the seventh, Avon threatened again, but Mark Sural entered in relief to seal the victory.

Defensively, Tom Baird, Brandon Clutts and Ray George helped to keep Avon from mounting any serious scoring threats.

Timely hits contributed to Antioch's 8-run production. Shaunessey tripled with two runners on board, and a two-run double by Ryan Clutts helped Antioch hold the lead it never relinquished.

In their only loss of the season thusfar, the Travelers dropped a 3-1 game to Wauconda. Antioch lacked the timely hitting needed to pull out the win.

"These kids have hit well until now," commented Assistant Coach Jim Eggers. "I'm confident that we'll work our way out of this slump."

John Logan, Baird, Ryan Clutts, Chris Gaulin, and Brandon Clutts all played a solid field to hold Wauconda to only 3 runs.

Sponsored by Raymond Chevrolet, the Antioch Travelers play their home games at 6 p.m. at Antioch Upper Grade.

Speedy Round Lake Colts jump off to a quick start

A talent for stolen bases and execution of fundamentals are two important baseball aspects already shown by the Round Lake Colts.

The 15 and 16-year-old team has had games of 7 and 9 stolen bases while achieving a 5-3 start. Wins included a sweep of a 17-year-old baseball team from Racine on Sunday.

"This could be a big stepping stone for us. It gives them confidence we can play with anyone," Manager Glen Jewel said.

The team consists of players from Wauconda, Grayslake, Grant and Round Lake underclass teams. The Colts compete with 17-year-olds again at a LaCrosse, Wis. tourney this weekend.

"We have a lot of speed and we utilize it well. We are also a strong fundamental team," Jewel said.

The Colts finished 2-3 at a Winthrop Harbor Memorial Day weekend tournament and began the week 1-0 in the Mike's Memorial League.

After a 9-2 loss to Winthrop Harbor I, Round Lake rallied for a 10-0 win over Winthrop Harbor II. Matt Vasey (3-0) gained the win with a 1-hitter.

"He was on fire as a hitter. He was 2-of-3 with 3 runs scored, 2 stolen bases, a homer and 2 RBIs," Jewel commented.

Dave Weber of Grayslake was 2-of-4 with 2 RBIs. Weber had 3 hits in an 8-7 loss to Waukegan. Nate Brewer of Grayslake had 2 hits and scored 2 runs.

Sean Eaton, a 16-year-old from Grant, earned his early season status as a "phenomenal player" according to the manager. He was 2-of-2 with 2 runs scored and a pair of walks against Waukegan.

Vasey gained another win in a 13-6 victory over Zion. He was 4-of-4 with 4 runs scored and 3 doubles, a triple and 3 RBIs.

Brewer had 3 hits and 3 runs scored and 3 RBIs. Eaton had 3 hits, 2 doubles and 3 RBIs. Dean Cummings continued the hit parade with 2 hits and an RBI. Ryan Gibson, a 15-year-old, had 3 hits and 3 RBIs.

Linden Rockets, Power NWSC names All-Conference teams highlight weekend play

Blitz

The Lindenhurst Blitz (U-16) opened their season by playing an Illinois State Cup preliminary game in Naperville against the Fox Valley Nightmares. Fox Valley defeated the Blitz by the score of 3-1.

The Blitz (last year's U-16 Division B champions) played a sluggish first half, falling behind 2-0 at the end of the first 40 minutes. The second half saw the Nightmares scoring a quick goal, making it 3-0.

Lindenhurst forward Becca Bleyer punched home the lone Blitz goal after receiving a perfect chip pass from Carrie Gofron.

Even though the scoring stopped there, the Blitz had five chances that just wouldn't find net, two of which hit the crossbar. Blitz standouts in the game were Nicki Kral, Tami Wright and Stacey Alberts.

Power

The Lindenhurst Power (U-14) battled the Wheaton Wings to a 0-0 tie in their IWSL match up.

The Power played without any substitutes, and the girls were forced to play the entire game sometimes in unfamiliar positions.

The midfield and defensive play of Lauren Beatty, Nicci Estep, Tracie Foster, Kristen Hungarland, Jourdan Phillips, Jenny Porter and Cara Robinson was critical in helping to shut down the Wheaton attack.

The goalkeeping duo of Jenny Barbera and Kristina Gianglori made several saves in preserving the shutout.

Lightning

The Lightning (U-12) took on one of their old rivals on Sunday and came away with disappointing results. Despite plenty of scoring chances, they could only connect once and lost to Fox Valley 2-1.

Down 1-0 at the half as a result of a penalty kick, the Lightning scored in the first 20 seconds of the second half to tie the game.

Unable to put another one in the net, the loss was sealed when Fox Valley scored in the final three minutes. The Lightning's record now stands at 4-2-2.

Rockets

The Lindenhurst Rockets (U-10) recorded their fourth shutout of the season and improved their record to 4-2-2 with a 1-0 win over the Wheaton Wings.

The game's only goal was scored midway through the second half by Robyn Mortenson.

Excellent defensive play by Tanya Earl, Lauren Cole, Becky McBrady, Callie Check, Erin Peacy, Elizabeth Martin and Lori Knupp held the Wheaton offense in check the entire game.

Northwest Suburban All-Conference has named members of the softball team. Members are:

Rams' Gantt gains state experience

Chalk one up for experience.

That is the way Jason Gantt may view his race in the 1,600 meters at the state meet. The Grayslake High junior did not qualify for the finals with a time of 4:25 in the prelims.

"He ran a good race, but there is some good talent down there," Rams Coach Joel Peebles said.

The top times in the event at Eastern Illinois University's O'Brien Stadium were in the 4:14 range.

Gantt was a key distance runner as the Rams won the Northwest Suburban Conference title. Gantt, a junior, will be running many miles over the summer to build up a base for cross country season and another chance at state next spring, Peebles said.

Royal Eagles win two in tourney

The U11 Royal Eagles soccer team played in the Park Ridge Soccer tournament over Memorial Day weekend. In game one, the Eagles defeated Lisle 2-1. Tommy Woodruff started it off with an unassisted goal. Later Ryan Jordan scored assisted by Brian Walsh. Adam Jordan had 9 saves in goal.

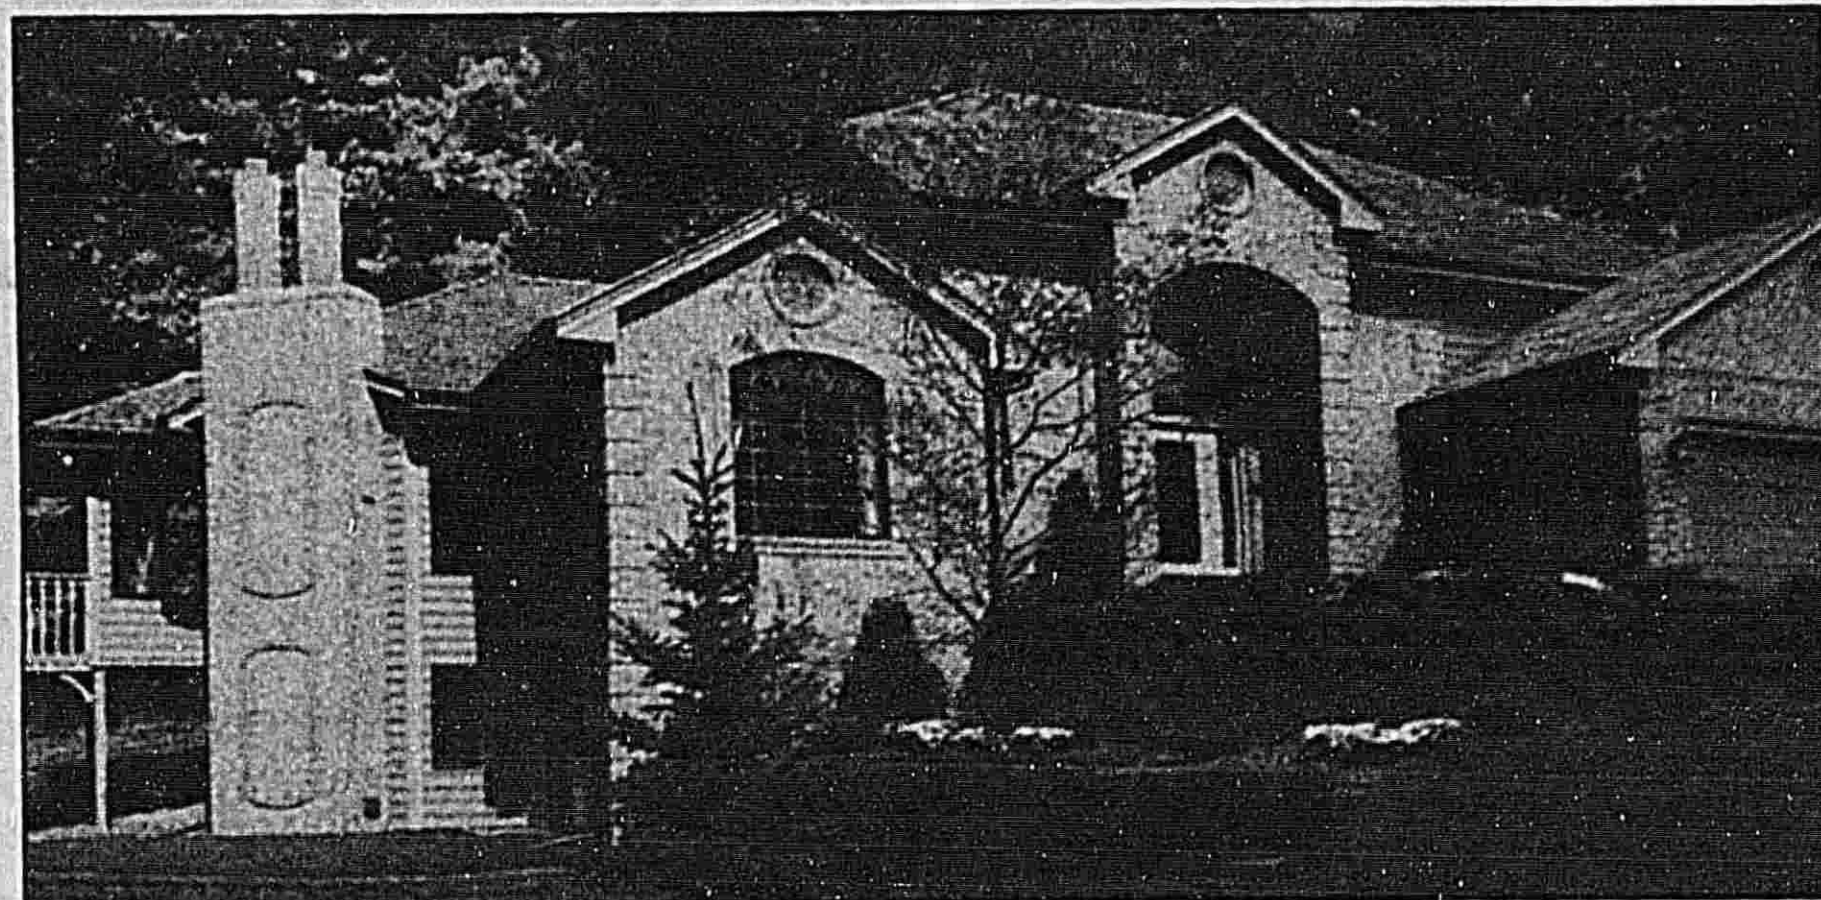

Game two was against the Waukesha Hurricanes and the Eagles won 2-1. Adam Placko found the net assisted by Ryan Jordan to start the game. Later Alex Hofeldt scored with a header assisted by Kevin Beaudry. Adam Jordan had 12 saves in goal.

In game three, the Eagles could only find the net once in a 3-1 loss to the Hoffman Bullets. Assisted by Placko, Ryan Jordan scored the sole goal. Adam Jordan had 9 saves in goal.

During the tournament, the defense was led by Ramesh Kumar, Erik Carlberg, Kevin Beaudry, and Brian Walsh.

The midfielders, Kaleb Barrett, David Calvert, Christian Chebny, Brian Halvey, and Tommy Woodruff, kept feeding the offense the ball all through the tournament.

Preserve trail, village sewer deal still up in air

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

A game of political hardball is being waged as the village of Lindenhurst and the Lake County Forest Preserve struggle to come to an agreement for a trail addition.

The County Board and the Forest Preserve are seeking an extension of the multi-use trail from McDonald Woods to Grand Avenue and eventually to the Rollins Savannah. Lindenhurst trustees would like to see an extended Facility Planning Area (FPA) or sewer service area and securing of easements to install the sewer lines.

"It's my feeling and I hope the board would agree, if we don't get the FPA boundaries, then we don't have an agreement," Mayor Paul Baumunk said.

The village is also attempting to get the village of Lake Villa to allow Lindenhurst to have a corner off Grass Lake Road south of Polley Field. Trustees have expressed an interest in getting that area for a commercial corridor.

Lindenhurst also is seeking to expand its FPA to the north of its current boundaries into a portion of the County FPA which is in the village of Antioch. Antioch officials haven't given an indication if they would allow this and haven't discussed the issue at a public meeting.

A special joint meeting of the County and Forest Preserve has been scheduled for 9 a.m. to finalize an agreement. The County is working with the village and developers Westfield Homes and Meridian Homes to hammer out an agreement.

The County and the village have worked with Westfield, the developer of the proposed 550-unit subdivision Country Place in Lindenhurst, which the trail would go through, on a way the developer will finance construction of the trail.

A loan agreement has been worked out which would give Westfield the money to build the trail before homes are constructed. However, the village would agree to hold permits from Westfield if the developer doesn't pay the Forest Preserve the loan.

"It's kind of a strange impact fee," said Trustee Kris Volodka.

She was concerned with the structure and found it troubling the village would be obligated to stop permits for the County.

Volodka was also upset with the homeowner's association being responsible for maintaining a buffer for the trail area. She questioned what would happen if the association couldn't finance the upkeep.

Pretty pictures

Each year a portrait of the reigning Miss and Little Miss Antioch are hung in the Village Hall at the end of the queens reign. Here Mayor Marilyn Shenefug accepts the official portraits of Miss Antioch Becky Christopherson and Little Miss Antioch Jessica Smouse. They were presented to the village by Barry Dowe of Barry Dowe Photography. Jessica and Becky will pass on their titles on June 23 and 24 at the Antioch Community High School Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Farmers meet change with new crops, techniques

Part four in a five-part series

RHONDA HETRICK BURKE

Editor in Chief

The fields of Lake County are changing but not necessarily in the way most residents believe. The fields are not just growing homes, but are changing crops—as vegetables and nursery stock grown on small farms replace large grain and livestock operations around the county.

In the past 25 years Lake County has lost approximately 20,000 acres of farm land to residential development but one-third of the county or approximately 75,000 acres of county soil is still actively used for agriculture according to Richard Raftis, manager of the Lake County Farm Bureau.

The Lake County Farm Bureau takes an active role in working with municipalities and county officials to preserve farming and protect farm interests throughout the county. They also work to educate the community at large and school children through special programs. The Farm Bureau is an independent, non-profit organization organized of farmers and individuals with an interest in farming. Only active farmers can be elected to the board. Each Illinois county has its own Farm Bureau organization. Lake County's was established in 1914.

"Farming remains one of the top five industries in the state," Raftis said. "The Lake County Farm Bureau is active in the development of farm programs and in assisting municipalities and county officials in working with farmers and their land holdings."

"Most municipalities want to work with farmer's whose land falls under their jurisdiction to keep the farmer productive," said Raftis. "Often times they need guidance because they don't understand the needs of farmers."

Raftis believes Lake County will continue to be a farming county for many years to come.

"Much of the growth experienced since the mid-1980s was growth that would have occurred in the 1970s if the national economy had been stronger and interest rates lower," said Raftis. "The zoning of many parcels which new developments have been built on was changed in the 1970s to be residential. I believe Lake County experienced 20 years worth of growth in a 10 year period. Lake County continues to have more agriculture production than 30 other Illinois counties."

Raftis feels the days of dairy farms in the county are dwindling as are large family owned farms. The cost of land and the inaccessibility of large parcels has changed the way farmers operate in the county.

"I would estimate 60 to 70 percent or more of county farm land is not owned by the individual farming it," said Raftis. Much of the land is owned by See FARMERS page B7

Antioch, Wauconda precincts spared

Grant, Cuba axed, board votes June 13

KEVIN HANRAHAN

Staff Reporter

Precincts in Antioch and Wauconda were spared from the carving knife, while one precinct in Grant Township still may be eliminated and two precincts in Cuba Township will be abolished.

The Lake County Management Services, Taxation and Election Committee generally followed the recommendations offered by those directly affected by the proposed precinct boundary changes made by the County Clerk's Office.

Committee Co-Chairman John Schullen applauded the County Clerk for consolidating some precincts but was concerned about creating extra large precincts that will grow with new development.

"I am a little troubled that consolidations, particularly in high growth areas, in two years we'll be revisiting these precincts," Schullen said.

In Antioch Township, for example, the clerk's office originally re-configured precincts 14 and 15 to make both large districts more manageable, but County Board Commissioner Judy Martini (R-Antioch) suggested leaving the two districts alone to allow for potential growth.

She said inevitable growth will dictate the creation of an entirely new precinct in the near future.

"Why change things now if you're going to have to go back in two years and change them again... Why confuse the voters?" Martini said.

Lillian Golonka, committee person of precinct 15, submitted a letter to the committee noting that the two precincts will have to be divided in half or a new precinct will have to be created anyway in the next two years.

"A new precinct should be created and be allowed to grow with the people," Golonka wrote.

In Wauconda Township, Daniel Stegeman, committee person of precinct 291, saved his precinct from being eliminated. The County Clerk suggested consolidating precincts 291 and 294 into one precinct with 925 registered voters. Generally, precincts with more than 800 voters are difficult to manage.

Stegeman pointed out that the Country Ridge development would add even more voters to the extra large precinct within two years. The committee agreed with Stegeman's analysis and rescinded its original vote to consolidate the two districts. See PRECINCT page B7

Thompson: Drinking age will not change

TINA L. SWIECH

Staff Reporter

"On your 18th birthday, you'd go up there and get drunk. That was very common then," said Gloria Green Pritchard, former Grayslake High School student remembering when Wisconsin's legal drinking age was 18.

Pritchard's case however, was a little unusual, which in hindsight could be the reason she's still alive.

An older girlfriend who took her to Wisconsin deemed herself the designated driver and drank Coke all night long.

Not so many, however, were as lucky. According to the Lake County Coroner's office, 10 and 20 years ago, there were many deaths attributed to alcohol related accidents amongst teenage drivers. This earned Rte. 83 and other north-south routes crossing the border the unflattering nickname "blood-alley."

"The numbers decreased immediately when they (Wisconsin) went up (with the drinking age)," remembers County Coroner Barbara Richardson.

Despite a proposed bill pending before state legislators to lower the drinking age, Wisconsin Governor Tommy G. Thompson's office says no one has to worry about this happening ever again.

"It's not going anywhere," assured Thompson's press secretary Kevin Keane about the proposed drinking age limit decrease.

Keane said there has been a bill introduced into the Wisconsin legislature which would lower the drinking age to 19. Right now the drinking age is 21; a federal mandate forced the state to change the law several years ago.

For many years Wisconsin's legal drinking age was 18, then it went up to 19, then 20. Keane said the Governor feels lowering the age limit to 20 would be ideal, but right now he won't approve such a measure because the state would lose federal highway funds.

"If the feds change the law, then he (Thompson) will talk about it," said Keane.

Former Lake Zurich resident Jim Pepper is concerned a lowered drinking age would be tragic for the kids he works with. Pepper is a juvenile officer with the Mt. Horeb Police Department near Madison, Wis.

"I think it will even have an effect on middle school kids," said Pepper who sees a trickle down influence happening.

Pepper also recalls tragedies from years back while Wisconsin's drinking age was still 18 and 19. At that time he worked for the Lake County Sheriff's Department as a dispatcher, according to friend Jim Wipper of the County Coroner's office.

Illinois Secretary of State George Ryan became so outraged upon hearing the neighboring state may lower its drinking age, he promptly sent a letter to Thompson.

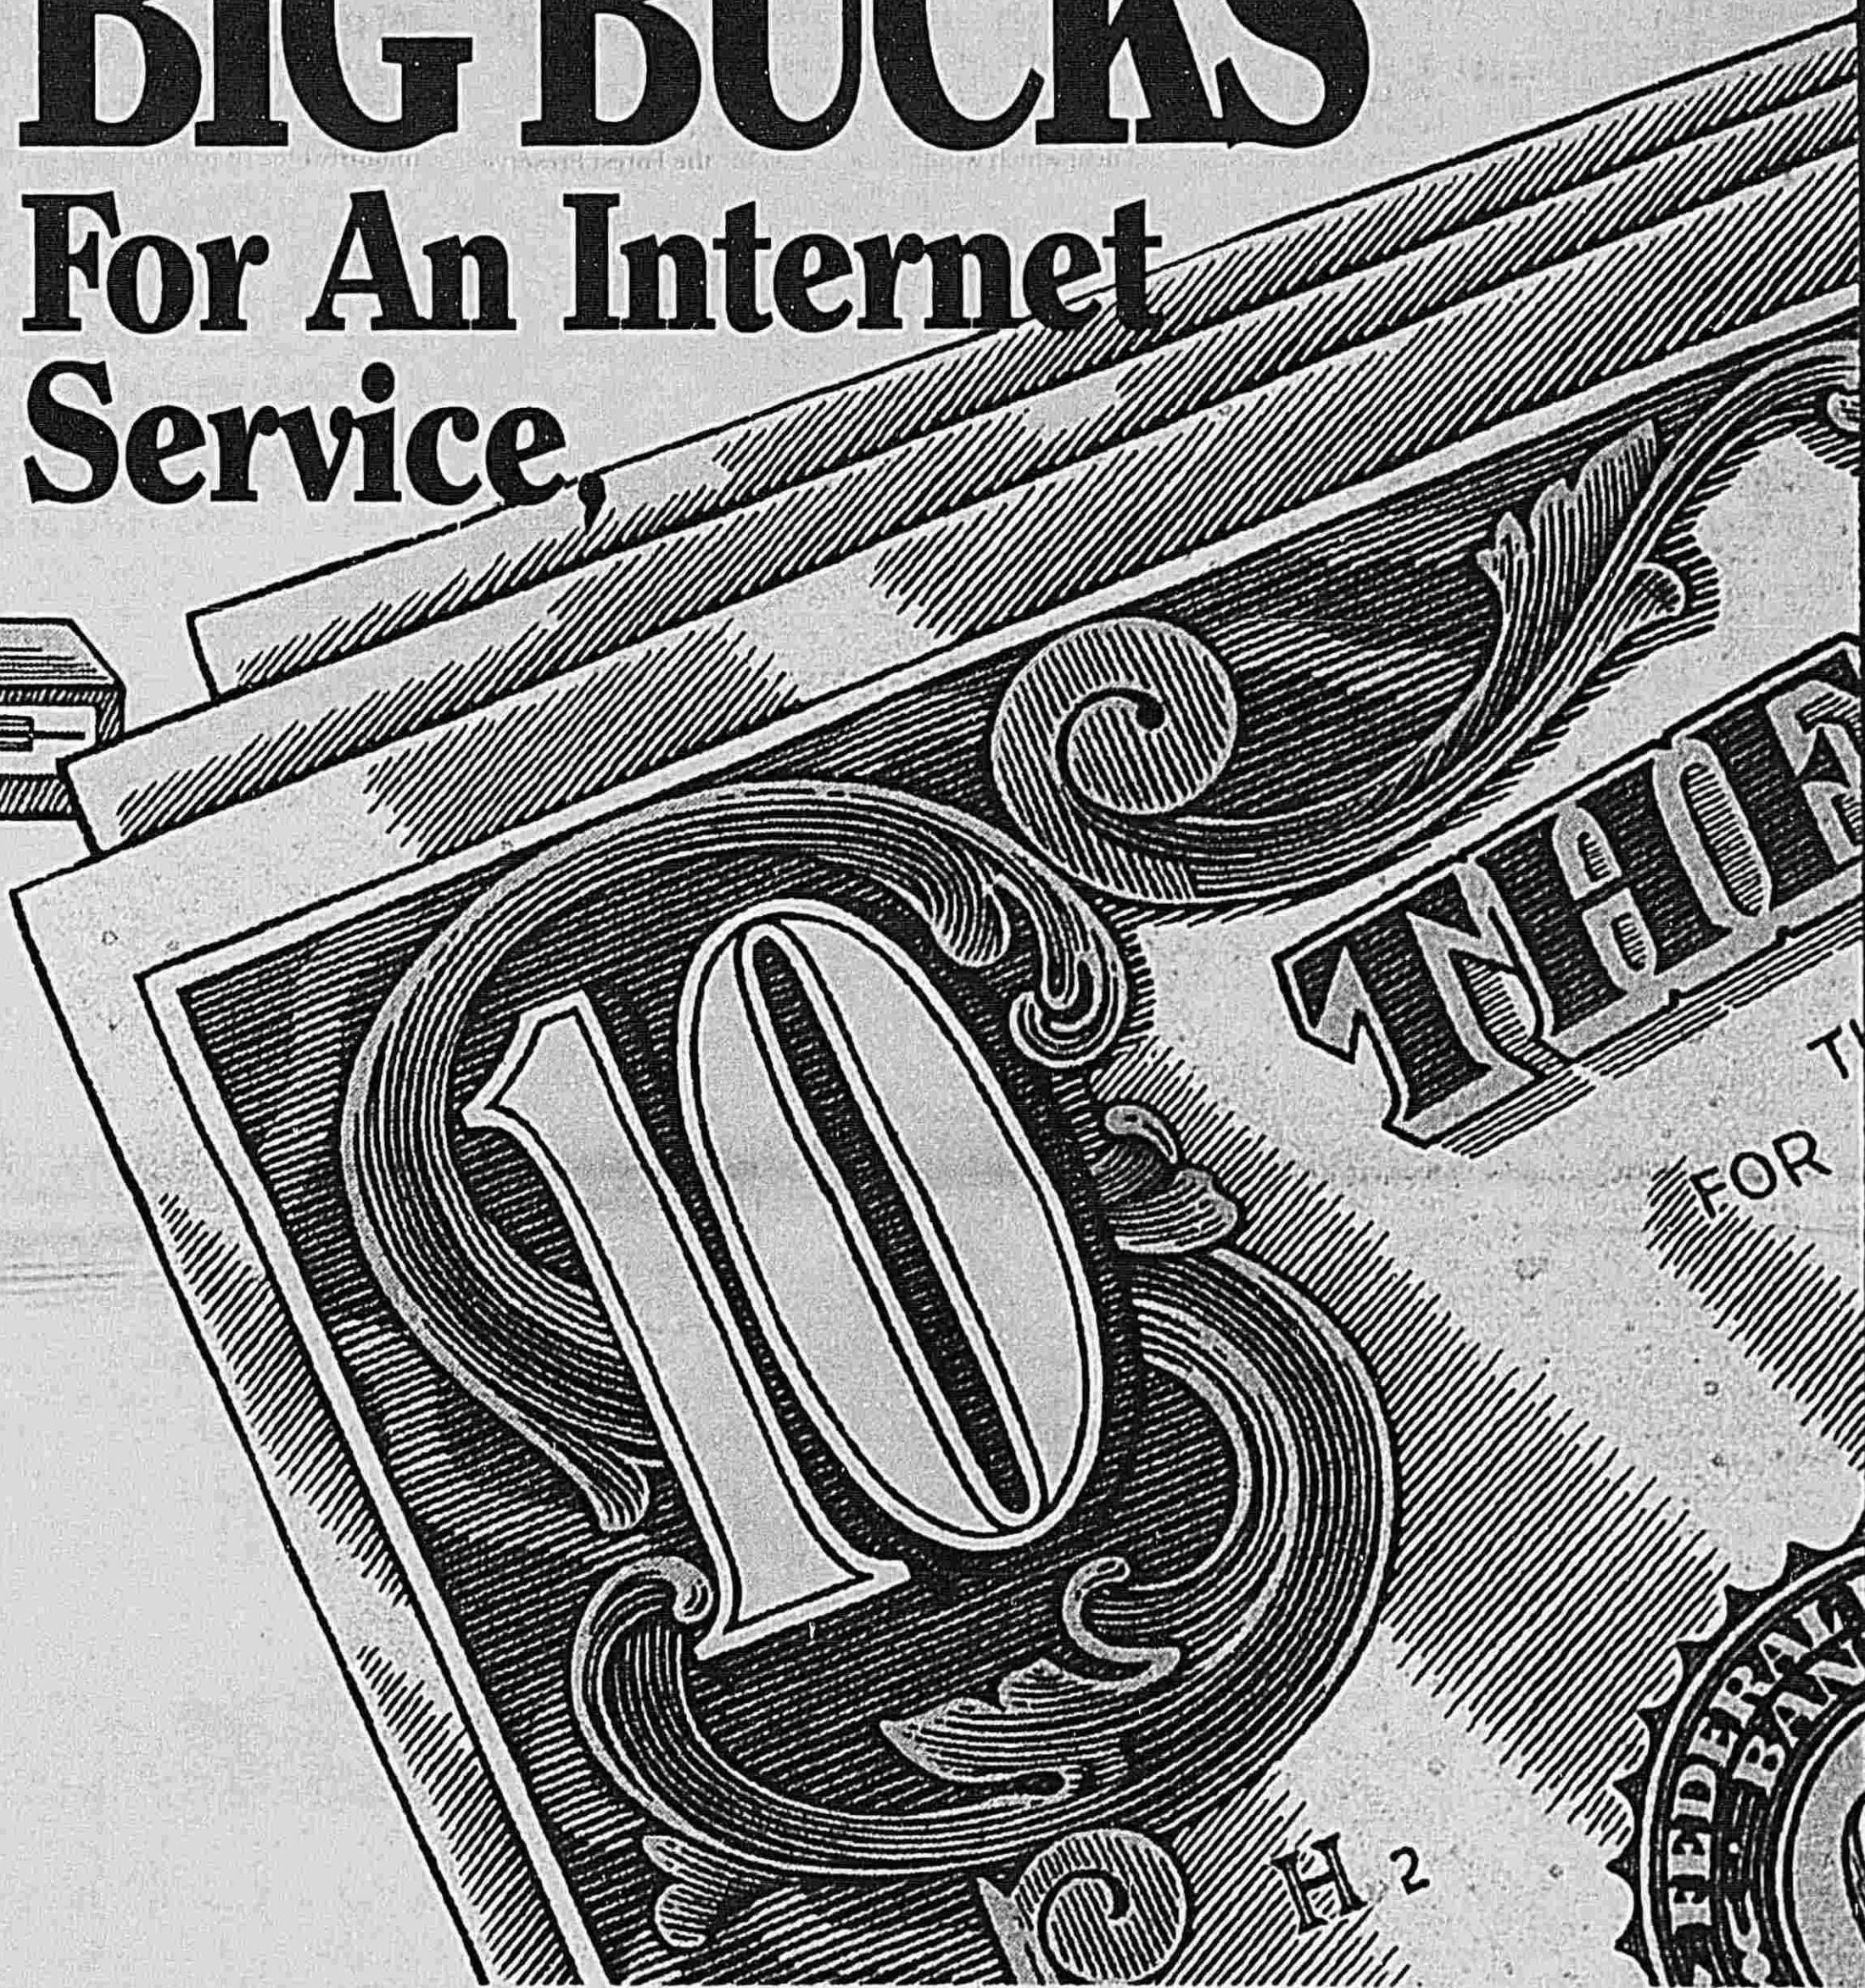

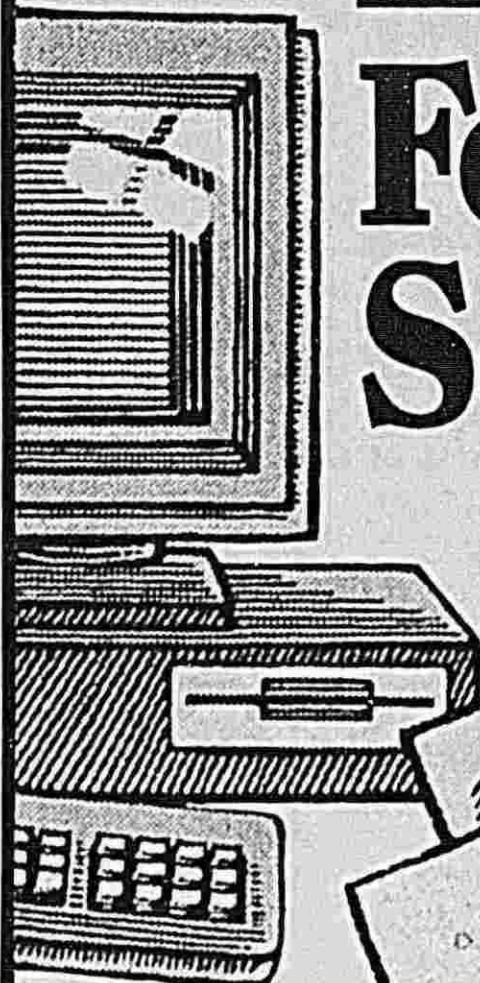

"We only have to look back a few years to see what tragic consequences a lower drinking age in Wisconsin would bring to the roadways connecting our states," stated Ryan. "I am certain that neither of us wishes to see a repeat of the late-night carnage that once earned our joint boundary the name of 'Blood Border.'"

Keane agrees tavern owners would like to see the age lowered. Lake County Coroner Richardson says that has to be the truth. "It's nothing but a monetary advantage," said the coroner. "That's the only thing I can think of."

Route 83 and other north-south roadways connecting Lake County with Wisconsin were commonly referred to as "blood alley" during the time teens could drink legally in Wisconsin. Gov. Tommy Thompson predicts the proposed bill to lower Wisconsin's drinking age will not pass.

Route 53 meeting set

MUNDELEIN—Lake County residents are invited to attend an informational meeting on the extension of the Route 53 Tollway on Thursday, June 8, from 7-10 p.m. in the Mundelein High School Gymnasium, 1350 W. Hawley St. From 7-7:30 p.m. the public is invited to visit a series of public information booths of numerous organizations. At 7:30 p.m. there will be a presentation on an alternative to building the proposed tollway and the traffic impacts of building a tollroad through Lake County. From 8-10 p.m. the floor will be opened up for discussion with panelists on the concerns about the project.

Village breaks the law

ROUND LAKE HEIGHTS—The village board broke state law when trustees approved the preliminary plat of the Fairfield Estates subdivision. The board violated the Endangered Species Act because the board is required by law to wait until a consultation between the Illinois Department of Conservation (DOC) and the developer, Pasquinnelli is completed before giving any approval, according to Deanna Glosser of DOC. She said the state has the power to sue the village over the matter but is unlikely to do so. The conference was required because the development borders Fairfield Marsh, a federally-protected wetland which is home to some endangered bird species.

Village, County play hardball

LINDENHURST—Village, County Board, Lake County Forest Preserve Officials, Westfield Homes and Meridian Homes are all working feverishly to complete a deal which would allow a trail for the Forest Preserve and an easement to allow the village and developers to build. Mayor Paul Baumunk made it clear the board wants to have approval from Northern Illinois Plan Commission to expand the village's sewer service boundary or there is no deal. Also, the County is requiring the village to hold building permits if Westfield Homes doesn't pay off a loan from the Forest Preserve. If completed, a trail will come from McDonald Woods and extend south to Grand Avenue and eventually to the Rollins Savannah.

Fire departments don't solicit

VERNON HILLS—Countryside Fire Protection

District Chief Lewis Landry wants to make clear that phone solicitations from groups posing as charity organizations for local fire departments are fraudulent. He noted that organizations from time to time ask for donations to benefit the local fire department. Landry stressed fire departments do not solicit by phone and that all aspects of the fire department including benefits are supported by the taxpayers. He alerted residents to question solicitors who claim that contributions will benefit fire departments.

Mayor vetos board action

LAKE ZURICH—Mayor Deborah A. Vasels vetoed an ordinance this week that would have excluded her vote in altering the board's rules and procedures. A majority bloc of trustees had supported the issue three weeks ago. Vasels is now allowed to vote on proposals to bring issues to the board without first going to committee. A motion to override her veto proposed by Trustee Charles Crawford failed, after Vasels broke a 3-3 tie vote among board members.

Tot drowns in Lake Marie

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP—Three-year old Ashley Wojtulewicz, of Schiller Park, lost her life on Sunday. Wojtulewicz and her family were visiting at Spiro's East Resort on Lake Marie when she drowned. It is believed Wojtulewicz was playing on the shoreline with a toy boat. She was found later in the water.

Legal aid office plans garage sale fund-raiser

Prairie State Legal Services, Inc., the legal aid program for Lake and McHenry counties, is planning its second Junk for Justice garage sale fund-raiser. The sale is planned for Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10, at the First Congregational Church at the corner of Utica St. and Grand Ave. in downtown Waukegan. The sale hours will be 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday.

"Our 1993 Junk for Justice sale was very successful. We raised almost $3,000 to be used to support our legal aid activities," stated Linda Rothnagel, managing attorney for Prairie State in Waukegan. "We are hoping that the sale will be even more successful this year. We have been gathering items for the sale for most of the past year." Items which will be available for sale include televisions, furniture, lamps, linens, children's clothing and toys, and equipment such as a snow blower. A number of stores have donated new items and these will be available at the sale as well. The program plans a "fill a bag" for clothing. Clothing will be sold by the bag starting at $5 per bag when the sale opens and ending at 50 cents a bag on Saturday afternoon.

Prairie State handles a wide variety of civil (non-criminal) legal matters for low income and elderly residents of Lake and McHenry counties. For example, staff obtain domestic violence orders of protection for abused spouses, represent tenants threatened with unlawful evictions and help elderly clients appeal denials of Medicare coverage. "We do not charge our clients fees for our services. We receive some government funding and generous support from the United Way of Lake County. We have nowhere near enough funding, however, to hire the staff we would need to help everyone who calls us with urgent legal problems. We will use the money from this sale to supplement our other funding," stated Rothnagel. "The funding may be particularly important this year because Congress is considering significant cut-backs in federal support of legal aid."

Prairie State still is seeking donations of items to be sold at Junk for Justice. Donations will be accepted up to the date of the sale. Donations made to Prairie State are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Those wishing to make donations can call Prairie State at 662-6925; ask for Wendy. Prairie State can arrange to pick up items from donors' homes.

Walk for Race Unity steps off June 11

The North Shore Race Unity Task Force invites all who support racial harmony to join in a Walk for Race Unity on Sunday, June 11.

The sixth annual walk will begin with registration and a prewalk program at 1 p.m. at the Ecology Center at Ladd Arboretum, 2024 McCormick Blvd. between Golf Rd. and Green Bay Rd. in Evanston. There is a parking lot available at that location. The walk will step off at 2 p.m.

Following the walk through parts of Evanston and Wilmette, there will be a program beginning about 3 p.m. in Wallace Bowl in Gillson Park. Family entertainment will include guest performers Ballet Folklórico presenting music and dance from Mexico, music by the Old Towne School of Folk Music Bluegrass Band and children's music with Susan Engle.

The park concession stand will be open for those who wish to purchase refreshments. Picnic lunches may be eaten in Wallace Bowl.

The purpose of the walk is to strengthen our resolve, cheer each other in our belief that the whole of humanity is one family and to inspire each other to seek deeper and wider friendships within our vast spectrum of diversity.

Everyone is invited to participate in the walk for which support has been provided by the city of Evanston, the village of Wilmette, Wheeling Race Unity Task Force, Lake County Race Unity Task Force and Skokie Human Relations Commission. For more information call 853-2300.

Rte. 53 taking perch with Humpty Dumpty

There's an eerie feeling that the controversial northern extension into Lake County of Rte. 53 could be a Humpty Dumpty project. Remember the nursery rhyme figure who "sat on a wall and had a great fall?"

Hints have surfaced that the proposed "wonder road" now on the drawing board of the Illinois Tollway Authority might be facing insurmountable obstacles. Because of public opposition and environmental hurdles, transportation experts admit that they are again looking at alternatives like upgrading Rte. 12 and widening other arterials.

Even with the Tollway Authority's creative financing ability, construction costs might present a roadblock. One recent press report put engineering, design and right-of-way acquisition at approximately $1 billion. The 18 mile tollway stretch from Lake-Cook Rd. to Grayslake could be the most expensive highway ever built in Illinois.

Now that two municipalities have pulled out of the Corridor Planning Council of Central Lake County, there is wonderment over what would happen if more towns dropped out. Mundelein, which would be split by Rte. 53, is a possible candidate. Officials of Long Grove and Hawthorn Woods regard the Council as a front for construction of the superhighway, calling it a rubber stamp for the road builders.

Mayor Marilyn Sindles continues to reflect Mundelein's tenuous stance, declaring that dropping out of the Council would shut off any input while acknowledging that her community will be heavily impacted.

Rte. 53, indeed, could be sliding into a perch next to Humpty Dumpty.

Private schooling posts landmarks

Private education, as evidenced locally, did itself proud with two monumental achievements to close out the school year.

Calvary Christian School of Lake Villa with 245 students, officially opened in 1983, conducted its first high school commencement. Carmel High School of Mundelein formally dedicated a new gymnasium and classroom facility, the capstone of a $3 million capital improvements program.

Academic excellence is the byword at both schools. What also attracts families to enroll their children in Calvary Christian and Carmel is the value placed by parents on a solid Christian unpinning for one of life's fundamental needs, a quality education.

Whether church related or non-sectarian, Lake County has a rich tradition for private education. The matter of school choice is American as apple pie. All of us are the better for the contributions to society of the private and parochial schools in our midst.

COMMENTARY

We fall for line—'Growth will come'

LENORE J. SIMMONS

A recent newspaper article about Lake County's effort to "pump up gas prices" caught my eye. The issue is an additional four-cents-a-gallon on gas hike.

It has been our county officials who have spent millions of tax dollars, inviting and encouraging large high density development, which includes corporate office parks to Lake County, with the promise of lowering our tax burden.

Some of these efforts have even been tax breaks to these corporate operations. These high density developments and corporate office and employment centers create more intense traffic congestion. Of course, we are doing it for all the little people by providing jobs and housing. Statistics indicate we are only moving people around in our metropolitan area, not creating anything.

County officials spent $600,000 to study installation of a $12.6 million road only three-quarters of a mile long. A good use of funds, I am sure they would say.

Lake County Transportation Dir. Martin G. Buehler has published a 10-year wish list of improvements costing $100 million that does not include many improvements expected by most people. Buehler reasons that the wish list is only 10 percent attainable without a Lake County gas tax of four-cents-a-gallon.

Thus, the answer to solving all the above issues is more taxes on us. That's right, a four-cent-a-gallon gas tax for Lake County, but how many more taxes will increase? These increases are made by your county officials so tax breaks can be given away to corporations to bring their congestion (plants and jobs) to Lake County, which promote more intense development and school taxes (your greatest tax bill that municipal and county officials do not claim responsibility).

Yet, we have been told that all this development and congestion is going to lower our taxes; why is it taxes keep going up and new ones are needed?

The issue is, we get to pay more taxes as the bill for politicians' right to more power over grand development and corporate buddies. We get to pay more taxes for foolish $600,000 studies for a three-quarters of a mile of highway projected to cost $12.5 million, yet the politicians say the study does not mean they have committed to the project. VIEWPOINT After son, 3, abused, mom seeks answers

BILL SCHROEDER
Publisher

The Illinois Dept. of Children and Family Services seems impervious to shame. So one more story of the inadequacies of DCFS probably won't be more than, well, just one more story.

A mother's anguished tale of despair, frustration and heartache dealing with the sexual abuse of her three-year-old son seems destined to be catalogued as just another in the unending list of shortcomings and failures of the state agency designed to be the last word in protecting Illinois children.

The single mother, a resident of a north Lake County community, related her experience seeking help from DCFS, and the callous disregard with which the beleaguered agency responded.

"I guess DCFS thought I was a kook who was overreacting," the parent related.

The hitch in the case, the mom explained, is the age of the person who assaulted her son. She said her son was abused by the neighbor boy, her son's former playmate, aged six.

"He's no ordinary six-year-old. He's quite mature. He approached my son in a very adult manner. It's unbelievable the way he conducted himself and what he did to my little boy," the woman continued haltingly.

She said DCFS told her that the agency could not intervene unless the neighbor was at least age 10. The Lake County state's attorney's office confirmed statutory prohibitions for bringing charges against children, outlining guidelines for dealing with juvenile criminal behavior.

"It's the system, I guess. Nothing can be done. Sure, I'm worried about my son. He's receiving counseling right now. But what about the kid next door? He desperately needs help. What's he going to do next time?" the distraught parent asked. The six-year-old's unemployed mother who supports herself with welfare has detached herself from the incident and now refuses to talk, the younger boy's mother reported.

Alternating between anger and bewilderment, the mother refuses to dismiss her son's encounter as "child's play," what an official saw as a growing up experience, a happening between two young friends exploring their sexuality. "I can't accept that explanation. Too much happened."

Under the circumstances, the mother admits she doesn't have many options. One of them is moving. She's considering that. "My son is so young. I'm hoping he'll get over the abuse. But what of the other boy? I can't get out of my mind what he's going to do when he gets older. No one wants to help him."

STAYING HERE—Rear Adm. Mack C. Gaston, who is winding up a distinguished military career when he retires this month as commander of Great Lakes Naval Training Center, has decided to become a permanent Lake County resident.

"I want to start a second career as soon as possible," declared Gaston, who has been one of the most popular Great Lakes commanders in recent history. His aim is to get established in a management capacity in business.

BOWING OUT—Dr. Daniel LaVista, who has resigned as president of College of Lake County, wants to remain a county resident long enough to say goodbye to the scores of personal friends he made the past eight years as administrator of CLC.

LaVista didn't keep the board of directors in the dark on his plans to leave so they had a game plan to install an interim president before the college chief made his plans known officially at a faculty meeting.

So while LaVista and his wife are vacating their Libertyville home, the "lame duck" period will be kept to a minimum. There definitely will be a LaVista era at CLC. Oodles of well deserved plaudits are sure to come his way before he heads to his new post in Baltimore, Md.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Pop disobeyed orders and got a genuine steel Radio Flyer after the decision was made to have a coaster wagon on hand when the grandchildren visit. None of those new fangled plastic contraptions.

-PARTY LINES-

College of Lake County faculty has ideas about LaVista replacement Party Lines, the Lakeland Newspapers column of political commentary, is prepared from staff reports.

Faculty segments at College of Lake County are expected to advance the names of two present administrators to succeed Dr. Daniel LaVista as president.

Gretchen Naff, vice-president of educational affairs, and Russ Peters, assistant vice-president of education affairs, are popular with faculty members and would be among prime candidates if the board of directors chooses to select a new president from current faculty and staff.

LaVista's impending departure from CLC follows a pattern among community college chief executives whose tenure runs about seven or eight years. LaVista, CLC's third president, was just starting his ninth year, which would put him on a tenure par with his predecessors, Dr. Richard Erzen and Dr. John Hunter.

GOP spenders—At least four of 14 Grant Twp. Republican precinct committeemen were embarrassed that their organization turned its back on economy and voted to oppose plans of County Clerk Willard Helander to combine two precincts as part of an effort to reduce election costs.

Twp. Chair Donna-Mae Litwiler, who is a patronage employee of Sec. of State George Ryan, opposed the economy effort. Robert Hamm, a longtime committeeman and a township trustee, is on the bubble if county board members uphold the Helander plan.

Ex-bossman—Litwiler County building insiders say Bob Strelcher, former county building czar, has accepted his second banana role with resignation. "Probably looking forward to retirement," one wag put it.

A reorganization move accomplished something no one was able to do for more than 10 years—put a bridle on Strelcher, who ruled the Building Department with an iron hand. Restructuring consolidated the Building and Zoning Department with planning and zoning under the new Planning, Zoning and Environmental Quality Department with newcomer J. Barry Hokanson as director.

So Strelcher has to take orders. Bob will go down in county history for his famous line, "I make the rules."

Schmidt

Terry Lumpkins of Round Lake Heights as a serious threat. His support base is too small, they say.

Park the bike—Speaking of challengers, open space advocates look upon Ray LeCroix as a credible candidate in the county board district now held by Farm Bureau's Dick Raftis.

"But Ray has to park his motorcycle and wear a necktie once in a while," one observer told Party Lines.

LeCroix, who lost out to Raftis in the central Lake County district in 1992, is held in high regard for his knowledge of issues and his independence. But his laid-back lifestyle turns off some voters.

Raftis

Count to 10—Former Mundelein Mayor Colin McRae was convicted on battery charges after a confrontation in the Hawley Commons parking lot. His temper earned him not only a $100 fine but a period of supervision as well.

Tilting at windmills—With the reality of the Route 53 extension looming ever larger, Mundelein Trustee Ray Semple has no sympathy for opponents of the project. "They're not only beating a dead horse," he said, "it's starting to rot away!"

Skating on thin ice—A vicious rumor that circulated through Lake Zurich is just that, according to Trustee Karen Demos-Rosenthal.

The rumor had Demos-Rosenthal bribing residents to attend the June 5 board meeting and support Mayor Deborah A. Vasels with tickets to attend an ice show. She said this was not the case.

Demos-Rosenthal works for WBBM-TV Ch. 2 and received a number of tickets from her boss for the ice show held at the United Center. She had merely given them to friends with no strings attached.

The rumor was started by supporters of an opposition party who support four board members, including Trustee Charles Crawford, who admitted he had received tickets and attended the ice show.

Hispanic growth—During precinct boundary debates, County Board member Angelo Kyle (D-Waukegan) noted that a different type of population growth is occurring in the Waukegan and North Chicago precincts as compared to the housing growth being experienced elsewhere in the county.

"Hispanics are moving into the district in droves. They are the largest minority group in Lake County now. Soon we're going to have to address Spanish translations for ballots," Kyle pointed out.

The Hispanic growth he refers to comes not as new homes being built but as larger Hispanic families occupy existing dwellings. The problem is that not all are naturalized citizens are registered voters. If this growth is true, Party Lines challenges precinct committee persons in Waukegan and North Chicago to hit the pavement and get their new residents registered as voters.

Venetian Night sinking—Trustee Alberta Meyer of Fox Lake announced how unhappy it makes her that the annual Venetian Night Boat Parade may not happen this year. "I think it's pretty sad," said Meyer. "We have a beautiful town and no one will take the bull by the horns!" There has been virtually no interest with the boat parade which is always held around the time of the Sale-a-Bration, Meyer told the board Monday. Coordinator Dino Maravela sent letters out to marinas and he only got back one reply, said the trustee. Mayor Ken Hamsher agreed to call the various marinas in town himself, to see if he can't get the Venetian Night off the ground.

-LETTER TO THE EDITOR-

Kiley supporters thanked

I want to thank House Majority Leader Robert Churchill and all of the other legislators from Lake County who serve Lake County or any part of it, for their great support and cooperation with me to keep the Kiley Development Center operating for the next five years.

Many thanks also go to the parents of the Kiley Parents' Assn., and Dr. John Schullien, member of the Lake County Board, who met with me on various occasions in Springfield.

Thanks, also, go to the many Lake County citizens, more than 31,000 in number, who signed petitions protesting the closing of Kiley Development Center in two years.

With the aid of Anne Patla, director of the DMHDD; Howard Peters, deputy chief of staff to the governor; and the parents, we formulated an agreement to extend the Kiley Development Center for a five-year period. There will be evaluation of each resident on a case by case basis to serve the needs of the residents.

We have about 423 residents at Kiley, about 300 of them are profoundly retarded; and 240 of them are non-verbal.

Kiley has had a very dedicated staff, for which we are all grateful.

Adeline J. Geo-Karis
Senator, 31st Dist.
Assistant Majority Leader

Commentary

believe that one, they certainly have another bridge to sell you.

While county officials create the reason for a gas tax, which is congestion, these same officials spend tax money and go to Springfield to lobby legislators for the right to tax you more.

These are the same officials who tell you their developments will lower taxes. We deserve this, because we keep voting them into office. The Congressional revolution needs to come to Lake County. At our local level, the party labels mean nothing because the Contract With Lake County is clearly more taxes for us and special gifts for the few insiders. We need determined people willing to fight this charade as elected officials committed to protect Lake County against the ravages of urbanization.

If you feel as I do, that there is something wrong with the above scenario, call your public officials and ask for their justification for more taxes and why they support the causes that result in more taxes.

Do not accept the old and faded line, "growth will come anyway." If you believe that or accept it, then welcome yourself to the supporting group for more and more taxes.

Editor's note: Lenore J. Simmons is president of the Village of Long Grove.

Farmers

corporations or other private citizens. Farmers don't always know from year to year if the land they are currently renting will be available.

The cost of land in the county has limited the individual farmer from increasing his land holdings. Technology is also changing the way farmer's do business.

"If it was within the power of farmers no one would use chemicals or fertilizers because it's a cost of production," said Raftis. "People who believe farmers use chemicals without concern are wrong. Farmers want to control soil erosion and reduce dependency on such products, that is why they work with the scientific community to create hybrid seeds and other products which benefit farmers and the consumer."

Raftis believes farmers need to tell their stories so the public understands the need for farm programs and the impact farming has on the nation's economy.

"It is important the public has accurate information," Raftis said. "We are proud of the job we do. The programs which are a part of the Farm Bill keep the cost of food affordable for the consumer."

For Lake County farmers, provisions of the Farm Bill are administered by the McHenry/Lake Consolidated Farm Service Agency in Woodstock. The office was combined May 9 as part of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's cost savings efforts.

Lake County farmers utilize the Weed and Feed Grain Program which is an acreage reduction program where land is placed into a conservation reserve program.

"Under the program farmers are limited in planting acres of corn and wheat," said Mary Hook, acting county director of the McHenry/Lake Consolidated Farm Service Agency. "Farmers must put a cover on it and not crop the land." According to Hook, approximately 60 Lake County farmers are involved in the program. "You must own the land to place it into conservation reserve," said Hook. "Because most of the farm land in Lake County is not owned by the farmer it reduced the number of individuals who apply for the program." Hook says it is difficult for Lake County farmers to maintain farm land because many don't own the land and urban farming creates unique obstacles such as moving of farm machinery in traffic and encroaching urban population.

"Farmers cannot make long-range plans because they don't know if they'll be farming the land next year," Hook added.

Raftis says the conservation reserve program is one program which both farmers and environmentalist can agree on. The program creates wildlife habitats and reduces soil erosion. Currently there are 820,000 Illinois acres in the program.

Raftis believes the Farm Bill continues to be necessary if the price of food is to remain steady.

"Farmers support a market-based economy but government controls prevent the food industry from falling under individual control. The government is a stabilizing factor in the food commodities," said Raftis. "If we are to remove controls, it should be done very gradually."

Raftis says, however, administration of the Farm Bill on a national level is difficult because the needs of farmer's vary greatly between geographical regions and by crop production.

Hook agrees the Farm Bill is necessary because of the benefits to everyone in keeping the cost of food low.

KKK no shows, may burn crosses later

TINA L. SWIECH

Staff Reporter

"If they had it, they had it privately," said Deputy Chief Glenn Olson.

Saturday turned out to be quiet for the McHenry County Sheriff's Department where Olson works, who were busy preparing themselves for a rumored rally by the Ku Klux Klan which they feared may have been disruptive, even downright dangerous.

But on Monday, Olson announced an offshoot of the Ku Klux Klan, which were originally going to meet outside of Richmond in back of the Second Chance Saloon, never showed.

Olson said the owner of the bar where flyers advertised the rally would be had told police that event was "never going to happen."

The deputy chief the sheriff's department didn't know for sure if the rally was going to take place in an undisclosed location, so they wanted to be ready just in case.

Olson said area police departments were contacted, and the sheriff's department had "significantly increased staffing for the evening" of June 3. The deputy chief said his department doesn't mind demonstrations so much, as long as they don't offend anyone, or cause a disturbance.

No permits were applied for at the McHenry County Courthouse regarding such a rally, according to officials.

The KKK group allegedly involved in the rally is a Michigan-based organization which is militant-style, said Olson.

While they were set to come on the same weekend as the Arkansas-located KKK who was to be in Rolling Meadows, there is reportedly no connection between the two groups.

Lakeland Newspapers placed a call to Second Chance Monday morning, and an employee there said to his knowledge there was no KKK rally held Saturday.

The sheriff's department said they aren't ruling out the possibility that the group is planning another date for the rally, if the one over the weekend never took place.

Precinct

"This makes more sense because then you would be looking at a precinct with more than 1,000 voters," Stegeman said.

For lack of input from Cuba Township officials, the committee maintained its proposal to abolish precinct 57 and combine it with precinct 56. In addition, precinct 60 was eliminated and combined with precinct 61, creating a precinct with 974 voters.

In Grant Township, disagreement over growth patterns resulted in the committee sticking with its original proposal to decrease the size of precincts 137, 140 and 142 in order to create a new precinct.

Township Chair Donna-Mae Litwiler said a 12-to-13 vote by precinct committeemen supported this change, but opposed a change that would eliminate precinct 147 and combine it with precincts 141 and 148.

She noted precinct 147, which includes much of the area around Lakemoor and Sullivan Lake, has grown from 147 voters two years ago to its current 312 voters. Litwiler and Township Supervisor Gordon Kiesgen said Lakemoor stands to be a potential area for growth and requested that the precinct remain the same.

"It's the only vacant area around," Kiesgen said of the Lakemoor region.

Brad Muse, whose precinct 147 would expand under the county's proposal, disagreed with Litwiler and Kiesgen.

"I have no evidence that there would be growth," said Muse. He added that any new growth would depend on the county, which would have to extend the sanitary district to the area to accommodate new growth.

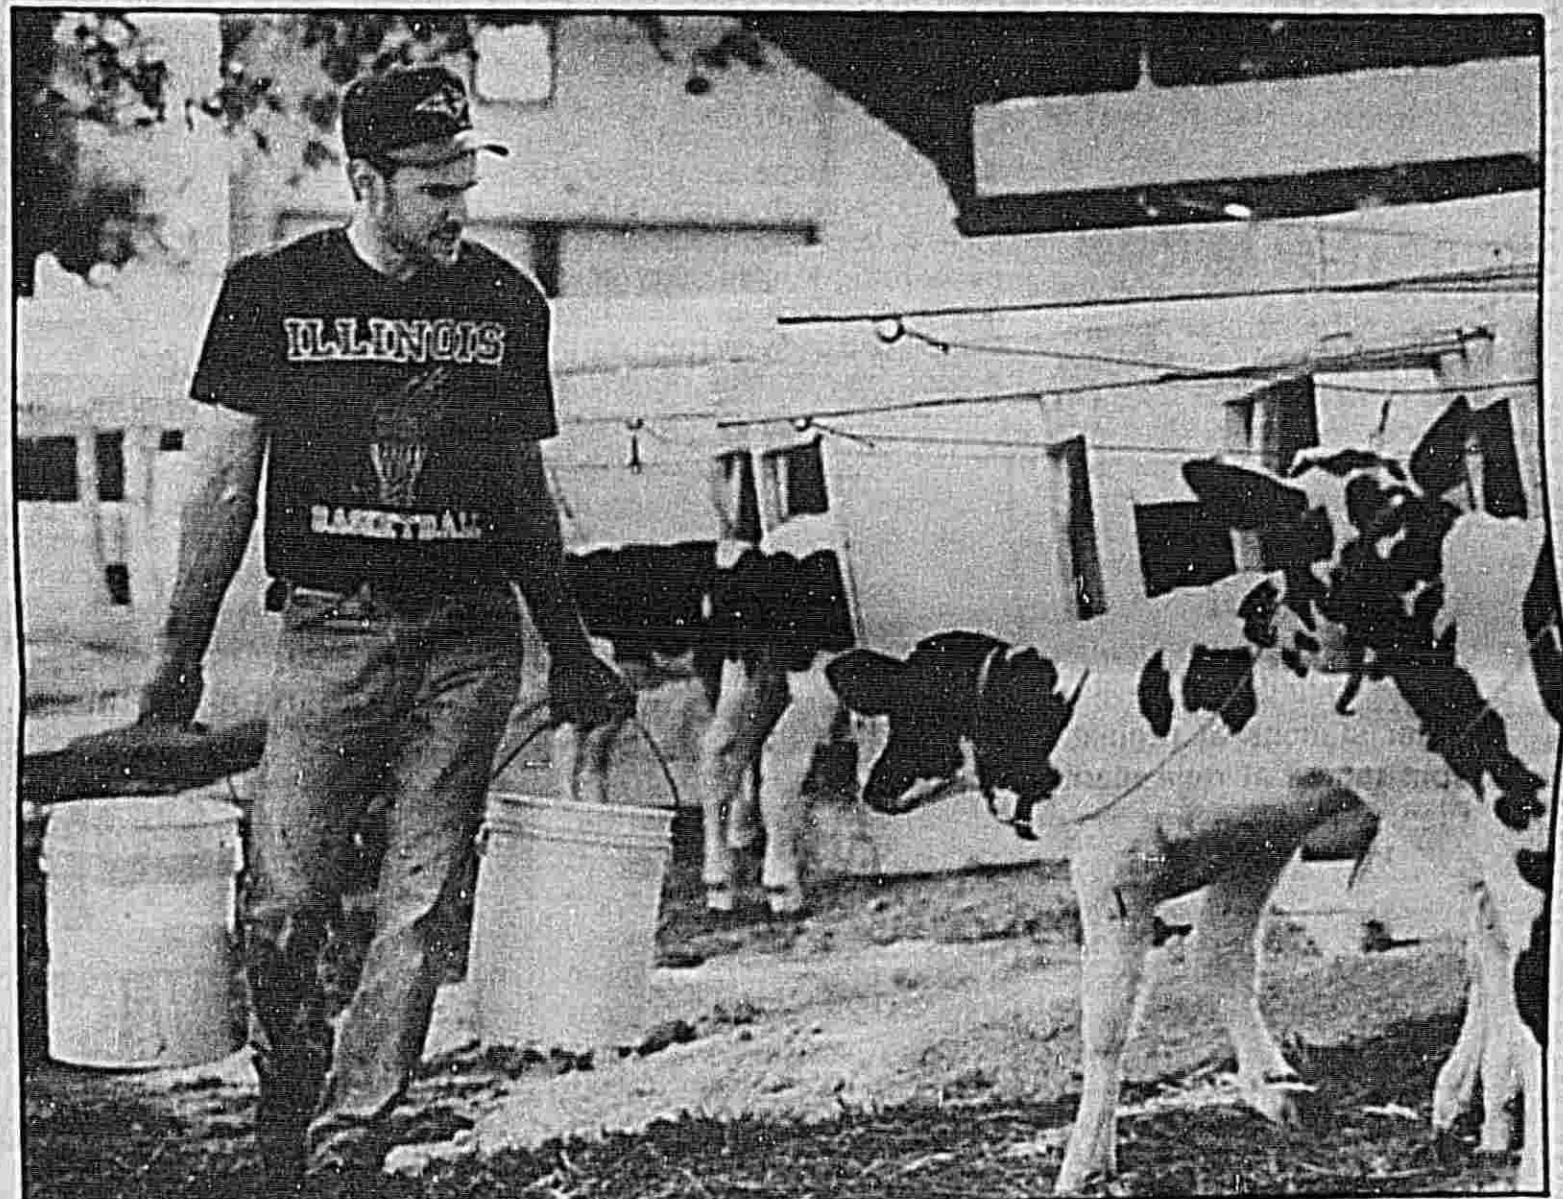

A vote to leave the boundaries as they are was defeated by a 3-3 committee vote, meaning precinct 147 would be eliminated as proposed.

In addition, the committee voted to create a new precinct in Vernon Township to accommodate expected growth in Buffalo Grove.

The full County Board is expected to vote on the precinct changes June 13.

"I am a little troubled that consolidations, particularly in high growth areas, mean in two years we'll be revisiting these precincts."

Hope you're proud

To the child who stole my 6-year-old son's bicycle from White Hen Pantry on Cedar Lake Road on Sunday, May 28, around 2 p.m., I hope you're proud of yourself. I bet your parents are proud of you, too. We are pretty sure you go to Ellis School. What a prize student! Kids who steal become adults who steal. I'm sure you'll go far in life, probably straight to jail. A child every parent would be proud of. I hope your parents have some respect for themselves and return the bicycle to the police station, since you have no respect for yourself. I can't believe your parents would allow their child to keep a stolen bike. I pray your parents will do the right thing.

Remember heroes

On this Memorial Holiday, I'd like everyone to remember all the heroes in uniform who died and also one other thing: The Germans weren't the only ones in World War II who were scummy. The Japanese were even scummier, except they didn't kill white Europeans. They killed Chinese, Koreans, Filipinos, etc. So think about it before you shoot your mouth off!

Thanks for Canteen

I'm from Antioch and I'd like to thank the teachers and administration of Upper Grade School for sponsoring and maintaining Friday night Teen Canteen. It's great to see the school willing to take an active role in providing a safe, well-monitored place for social activities. It must take a lot of planning to offer a variety of themes that keep our students interested and entertained. I applaud your efforts.

School in shambles

When Dr. Radakovich came to Antioch High School, he stated the school was for the kids. He then got rid of Steve Wayton and Cathy Kelly, who were doing one great job with the kids, and let the kids run the school. Now that all the top administrators have left the school, the school is in shambles.

Why so high?

I'm from Antioch and from doing a survey of six local high schools, I discovered that Warren, Zion, and Mundelein do not have any sport fees. Grant, Grayslake, and Libertyville charge $20 to $50 per sport, but Antioch charges $150 per sport. Antioch also charges a $50 performing arts fee. Out of the above six schools, only one had a fee for band at all, and that was $10. Antioch parents, how do you feel about this? If you're not happy, please write to the school board.

Let's slow down

I agree with the person who wrote 'Not in a hurry.' I'm sick of people riding my tail in a 30 or 35 mile per hour zone, passing me on the shoulder when I'm making a left turn (and giving me the finger on top of it), and honking their horns in a construction zone, when no one is moving in the first place. Where are we supposed to go? My time is just as valuable as the person who gestures obscenities and lays on their horn. Perhaps if we want to teach our children respect, the first thing to do is teach them respect for other drivers. I have a 17-year-old who recently got his own car and if I ever see my child show such lack of respect, his privileges would be revoked by me. Perhaps we all need to slow down just a bit.

Mail problems

I live in Round Lake Beach and wonder if anyone has had any problem with mail that's partially opened or mail taken out and put back in the envelope? I've had this happen several times and I'm getting tired of it!

Road geniuses

This is for all the geniuses at the Illinois Department of Transportation that decided to put Rte. 53, Algonquin Road, Arlington Heights Road, and Higgins Road all under construction at the same time. Please call my boss and tell him I'm not able to make it to work until the construction is done.

Ban the hoods

I'm calling in response to 'Park Is menace' in the June 2 edition of Lakeland. I lived in that area and moved out due to the conditions at the park. The people that go there to play aren't even residents of the area and are people you don't want to associate with. They look for trouble and pick on little kids. I have seen cars and homes hit when they play hardball. It's not a park that is enjoyed by children. It would be nice if the village put back the swings and slides and let the children of the area enjoy it instead of the hoodlums.

Kids suffering

This is for the teachers in Round Lake. No wonder these schools are getting such a bad reputation. It's because of the teachers we have in the Round Lake area. Our children are suffering the consequences of the teachers being so greedy.

Citizen's arrest

I'm from Wauconda and recently had to stop at the Wauconda Police Station. The only parking spaces available in the front of the building where visitors are supposed to park, were for handicapped people. The rest of the spots were full. There were no cars where the staff parking spots were. I recognized many of the cars in front as Wauconda Police Department staff members' personal cars. Why don't they park in the staff section and leave the front parking for visitors, like they're sup-

Calvary pride

Congratulations to the eighth grade class and first senior class of Calvary Christian School. Now that you have K through 12, get a new principal who isn't afraid to be a strong, caring, loving, concerned principal. One that's not afraid to pitch in and get his hands dirty. Calvary Christian School deserves strong leadership. Don't settle for just any students. Be picky. Put quality back into the school and don't let rebellious, smoking, drug-taking students in. Have pride in Calvary!

Residents voted

I read in Lipservice that someone said Liza Johnson was pushed into office by the township residents. If I'm correct, township residents don't even vote in the village election, so she was obviously voted in by village residents, so she is speaking for village residents.

Turnabout fair play

I find it very interesting that the seniors want an addition put on their center at Warren Township. Since they don't feel that our children should have decent schools to go to, I can't wait to vote in November on the referendum!

Like new colors

I'd like to compliment the Antioch Police Department on their new squad car colors. I think the pastel colors are much more pleasing to the eye and the cars aren't as intimidating as they were before.

Teach children the healthy number 15

Protect your child from becoming one of 34,000 people diagnosed with malignant melanoma each year by taking a few simple steps to protect the child from the sun.

"Everyone should protect themselves from the sun's harmful ultraviolet rays. However, because most people are overexposed to the sun as children, parents should be especially cautious and protect their youngsters," said Dr. Ralph Stoll, president of the Lake County unit of the American Cancer Society.

"The link between sunburns and skin cancer is very strong," Dr. Stoll said. "Because the skin remembers being exposed to the sun 10, even 20 years after the exposure, children in particular need to be protected with a sunscreen with a sun protection factor (SPF) of 15 or more.

"We're not asking people to hide indoors or bundle up in heavy clothes all summer long," Stoll said. "The American Cancer Society advises people to take a few easy precautions during their fun-in-the-sun time."

Some key tips:

•Be sure to keep sunscreen in a handy location, so it can be a visible reminder for everyone.

•Set an example for safe fun-in-the-sun. If you use light protective clothing and sunscreen with a SPF of 15 or more, your child are exposed to the sun.

•The sun's ultraviolet rays are strongest between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Exposure during these times should be avoided.

•Regardless of time of day or overcast conditions, the American Cancer Society recommends using a sunscreen whenever exposed to the sun.

•The skin needs time to absorb the sunscreen, so apply it 20 minutes before going outside.

•Even if one tans easily or already has a tan, using sunscreen can help keep the skin safe and healthy.

"In addition to helping reduce the risk of skin cancer, sunscreen can help prevent wrinkles," said Stoll. "The drying effects of the sun can add years to faces."

NutriQuest will plan healthy vacations

If your family vacations have a way of disintegrating into quick stops at fast-food restaurants, long boring rides and several pounds gained, some tips from Condell Medical Center's NutriQuest Weight-Management System can change all that.

"Making exercise and healthy eating part of the family vacation is not difficult," says Karen Demski, manager of the NutriQuest program offered by Condell's Medical Center Health Institute (MCHI) located in Centre Club, 200 W. Golf Rd., Libertyville. "In fact, it can be fun, especially if family fitness activities are planned and agreed upon together. The important thing is that the activities are something everyone can participate in and enjoy," she adds.

Demski cautions that the goal should not be to have the family involved in physical activity every moment of the day, or to eliminate special food treats entirely, but to incorporate enjoyable physical activities into the vacation plan from the beginning and to balance high-fat or calorie-laden foods with healthy choices. She offers the following tips for a healthier family trip:

Consider the availability of exercise opportunities when making vacation reservations. Ask if a pool, fitness facility, jogging track, tennis courts, hiking trails, and bicycle rental are available on site or nearby.

Plan a family bicycle trip as a way to see the sights surrounding your primary vacation spot.

Select a vacation destination that offers interesting activities and sights within a healthy walking distance.

Let family members row or pedal their own rental boats to see shoreline sights at the lake.

Pack a plastic ball and bat for impromptu family ball games at roadside parks to stretch muscles and break the monotony of lengthy drives.

Start your morning with a 30-minute pre-breakfast family walk along the beach or through the woods.

Let family members decide which one meal will be eaten at a restaurant each day. Purchase fresh fruit, breads, and other healthy foods along the way for other meals. (Remember to wash all fruit before eating).

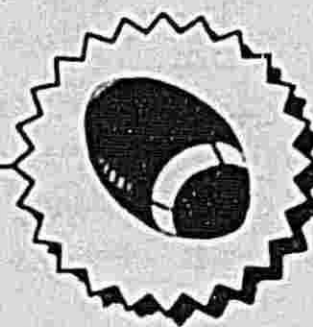

For more information on NutriQuest, call MCHI at 362-2905, ext. 5770.

Accidental poisonings can be easily prevented

It seems that every time a child is accidentally poisoned, a parent says, "I was only gone an instant," or, "I just turned away for a minute," or, "I just went to answer the phone." Unfortunately, it may only take an instant for a tragedy to occur.

The Lake County Health Department offers the following tips during Poison Prevention Month as reminders to prevent accidental poisoning.

Medication

Medicine should only be given to the person to whom it was prescribed, and should not be given in the dark, when mistakes could be made. Also, don't call medicine "candy" to make it easier to give to a child. Children should be taught to always ask mommy or daddy first before putting anything in their mouths, including vitamins (iron in vitamins may be poisonous).

Keep medicine in their original containers with the original labels. The prescription number on the label will allow for rapid identification of the ingredients by the pharmacy should they not be listed. When drugs have passed their expiration date, flush them down the toilet, wash the container out and throw them away.

Remind grandparents who are baby sitting to keep medication locked up and/or out of reach of children.

Other household items

Know the names of your houseplants and if they are safe of poisonous. Common houseplants that are poisonous include dieffenbachia, poinsettia, philodendron and aloe. If you aren't sure, keep them out of the reach of children.

Keep cleaning supplies out of reach of children and if possible, locked up.

Poison control doesn't stop at the door. Almost everything in the garage or storage shed that can be swallowed is poisonous. These include lighter fluid, paint and paint thinner, antifreeze and pesticides.

Watch out for ethanol, which is poisonous, and is found in mouthwash, cologne, after-shave and even medication.

Some art supplies may be toxic. For instance, lead may be found in paints, inks, glazes and enamel. Some paper-mache' products contain asbestos. Read the labels to make sure.

Cigarettes, pipe tobacco and chewing tobacco contain nicotine, which is poisonous. In addition, cigarette smoke contains carcinogens, which can cause upper respiratory and ear infections, and triggers asthma attacks.

Lead

If you have leaded pipes (in houses built before 1978), you should run the water for at least one minute prior to cooking or drinking if the water has not been used for four to six hours. Wash vegetables with water to remove any lead residues from soil or farm equipment. Do not expose children to renovation being done in a home built before 1968, due to hazards from lead paint.

Watch children for non-food items they put in their mouths such as paint chips, ashes, and dirt.

Do not store food or liquid in lead crystal or imported pottery.

Parents should also talk with their children before they go to other people's houses. Warn them to ask an adult before they eat or drink anything there.

Unfortunately, people often transfer poisonous substances to other containers. For instance, if products are stored in containers such as drinking glasses or soda bottles, someone may think they are a drink and swallow them.

Finally, always keep the number of the nearest poison control center on or near the phone. The Poison control resource nearest to Lake County is Rush-Presbyterian-St. Lukes Poison Control in Chicago at (312)942-5969.

There is no substitute for a vigilant parent or caregiver. However, should a poisoning occur, the consequences may not be as severe if the home has been "poison proofed." To receive a list of poisonous plants, "Mr. Yuk" stickers to place on home poisons and phone stickers with the Rush Poison Prevention phone number on them, please call the Health Educator at the Lake County Health Department at 360-6716.

Think Mature Health Fair set

Think Mature Health Fair, an event which offers participants a chance to assess their health status for free, will take place on Saturday, June 17, from 8 a.m. to noon at the North Shore Senior Center, 7 Happ Rd., Northfield.

The fair is sponsored by Highland Park Hospital's Mature Health® Program and is open to adults of all ages. Nine health screenings will be offered, including cholesterol, diabetes, blood pressure, blood oxygen level, vision, hearing, podiatry, a height and weight evaluation and a hemocult test for colon cancer. Results will be available in as little as 30 minutes.

In addition to health screenings, the fair features exhibits on nutrition, weight loss, home care and other health-related subjects, and a pharmacist will be on hand to answer questions about medications.

Breakfast will be served throughout the morning and all attendees will receive a free, flowering house plant. In addition, health fair attendees who are not already members of Mature Health® will receive a free membership. Perhaps the most important benefit is the Mature Health® membership card, which doubles as a medical emergency card. Members simply fill out a "Personal Emergency Medical History Form," and the date is transferred to microfiche which is embedded in the card.

Free parking will be available and, for those who do not wish to drive, free shuttle bus service between Highland Park Hospital and the Senior Center will be offered throughout the morning.

Advance registration is not required and no appointments are necessary for health screenings. For more information about the health fair or about Mature Health® benefits, call 480-3935.

Condell applauds state vote to lower Medicaid tax

Thanks to a recent vote by the Illinois General Assembly, Condell Medical Center will be paying approximately one-third less in Medicaid provider taxes in fiscal years 1996 and 1997. The state legislature voted to begin phasing out the hospital provider tax—a tax that has cost Condell Medical Center a total of $4.1 million since it was first levied in 1992 and $1.6 million annually.

Condell Medical Center, along with the 15 other hospitals that constitute Community Hospitals Against the Medicaid Provider Tax, praised state legislators for voting to eliminate the tax. On average, each CHAMP hospital pays nearly $3 million in provider taxes annually.

"CHAMP is pleased that the General Assembly has supported equity and fairness by voting to phase out the provider tax," said Paul Laudick, chairman and CEO of CHAMP. "We thank all the legislators who represent CHAMP members and their communities, particularly House Speaker Daniels and Senate President Phillip, for standing with us against this onerous tax."

Laudick says that the enactment of the hospital provider tax hurt hospitals because it came at a time when health care providers were having to cope financially with the rapid shift to fixed-rate pay arrangements and managed care in the health care industry. With the resulting decrease in traditional fee-for-service patients, this shift has diminished hospitals' ability to recoup costs incurred by the provider tax.

"As the marketplace made the transition to managed care, hospitals' operating costs have stayed steady while revenues decreased," Laudick said. "Hospitals are not financially as well off today as they were just three years ago. The survival of some community hospitals was severely threatened by this tax."

Collectively, the 16 CHAMP hospitals contribute nearly $33 million to the Medicaid program each year. They pay 12 percent of total provider tax proceeds, yet represent only 7 percent of all hospitals statewide.

CHAMP has maintained that the provider tax has been detrimental to the financial health and survival of many community hospitals across the state. The provider tax was imposed in 1992 as a temporary means of funding the state's financially strapped Medicaid program.

"We have always believed that providing quality medical care for the needy is important," said Elizabeth Lively, executive director for CHAMP. "But the provider tax was bad public policy from the start because it shifted the responsibility for Medicaid funding from the state to hospitals themselves."

Tai Chi class offered at Good Shepherd Hospital

Tai Chi, an ancient Chinese exercise that features a formalized series of movements designed to elicit a relaxed, mindful state, will be taught in morning and evening sessions at Good Shepherd Hospital.

The 10-week class sessions will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Wednesdays beginning June 21, or from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Saturdays beginning June 24. There is a $10 fee per session.

Participants are encouraged to wear loose, comfortable clothing.

Class instructor Jane Kern, R.N., will show participants how Tai Chi can relieve tension and increase concentration, body flexibility, inner strength and serenity.

Kern utilizes the "moving meditation" techniques of Chungliang Al Huang, an internationally known Tai Chi instructor.

"Instruction will begin with a series of Chi Xuong exercises. These are simple movements that are the easiest way to learn the Tai Chi philosophy of exercise," said Kern.

Background information about the history of Tai Chi also will be provided at the meetings.

For more information about the Tai Chi class or to register, call Good Shepherd Hospital's HealthAdvisor line at 1-800-474-3278.

A special treat for "first nighters" at the PM&L Theatre is the traditional champagne party given after the show so the cast and audience can meet and chat after the show.

The exuberant cast, directed by Mickey Mandel from Fox Lake, comes from all over Lake County and southern Wisconsin. Bert Johnson from Antioch plays Maria, John Rooker from Lake Bluff is Captain Von Trapp, Jenny Sliker from Salem, Wis., is Eva Schraeder, Peter Pintoski from Island Lake is Max Detweiler, and Eva Harper from Lake Villa plays the Mother Abbess.

Other cast members are from Ingleside, Fox Lake, Wildwood, Round Lake Beach, Lindenhurst, and Trevor and Genoa City, Wis.

"The Sound of Music" is truly a family musical full of fantastic music, laughter, and tears. PM&L hopes you will gather your families together and join them for a summer evening of enjoyment of "live theatre."

Catholic Charities—A half Century of help to needy

ALEC JUNG

Staff Reporter

For 50 years Catholic Charities has been there to help those in need.

Catholic Charities is the only multi-service agency in Lake County that helps children, individuals, families, the elderly and those in need of basic necessities. One doesn't have to be Catholic to be eligible for services.

The mission of Catholic Charities of Lake County, which is part of the Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago, is to relieve the suffering and help people achieve or resume a responsible role in society through the help of 23 social service programs. Some of these programs include HIV/AIDS casework, emergency shelter, foster care, a child abuse/neglect investigation unit, suicide support groups, home-delivered meals to the elderly and senior shared housing.

For AIDS victims casework involves assessing the situation the person is in and providing a way to help the person with daily needs.

"They might not be able to cook or do housework. This is a time when they need compassion and outreach," said Susan Moran, spokesperson.

Catholic Charities serves and employs people regardless of religion, race, nationality, ethnicity or social or economic circumstances. Last year, the organization helped 30,500 people. Of those, 24,500 benefited from social services and 6,000 received baskets of food, clothing and gifts at Christmas.

Started as a humble organization in 1945 at 218 Madison St. in Waukegan, Catholic Charities was staffed by only two people, Monsignor Joseph Lahart as executive director and Agnes Kelliher as executive secretary and caseworker.

It was committed to the goals of helping the abused, neglected, poor, sick and destitute in Lake County. Its first services were foster care, adoption and casework services. During the following years the organization multiplied its efforts through new programs to meet an ever increasing and diverse number of social problems.

In 1945 Catholic Charities served 86 people. In 1960, the group focused on unwed mothers. These services, which continue to this day, include counseling, parenting classes and providing cribs, formula, diapers, baby clothes and other essentials to expecting parents who are disadvantaged.

Last year, 201 women were assisted, 175 were women who had unplanned pregnancies and carried their children to full term.

"Catholics believe in the right to life and the people who are having unexpected children are in a crisis and need our help," Moran said.

Services to the elderly were developed and promptly expanded in the mid 1970s. In 1974, the Lake County chapter opened its first senior center to give the county's older population a place to socialize and receive, hot nutritional meals. A total of seven senior centers opened in the county by the end of the decade. Also opened was a Senior Aides Employment, a job-training program that employs low-income senior citizens to help seniors in need.

"People think that because you get old you can't care for yourself. That is not the case. There are a lot of resources out there to help," Moran said.

Other services provided in the early 1980s include a Resource Center in 1981 to dispense food, clothing, shoes and household items to families and individuals in crisis. During this year, 3,000 Lake County residents were helped by the Resource Center.

Financial counseling for those in debt (regardless of income level) was expanded to form

Consumer Credit Counseling program. Also the Family Self-Sufficiency program was created to teach families how to become financially and emotionally self-sufficient.

In late 1989, Catholic Charities opened up Samaritan House, a transitional shelter where homeless women and their children can live up to three months while they learn skills to become self-dependent.

"We go to the crux of the problem and the reasons they become homeless," Moran said.

Growth in the '90s included the creation of the HIV/AIDS case management program. Also created was the Physician Referral Service, a program that refers Medicaid patients to participating private physicians. Helping homeless individuals and families retain and maintain self-sufficiency has also been an aim of the organization.

There are few administrative costs to these programs. Of the money that is sent, 98 percent of it goes directly for services.

Peter Jansons, manager of Dakota Jakes

Dakota Jakes to bring live country to town

Dakota Jakes, Lake County's newest saloon and dancehall, will hold its grand opening Friday, June 9, to the music of Big John Howl and the Born to Boogie Band.

The new night spot, located at 657 Railroad Ave., Round Lake, is planned to be a top notch entertainment and eating establishment.

Manager Peter Jansons made his mark in the entertainment business booking bands for the Cubby Bear Lounge in Wrigleyville. He brought country acts including Johnny Cash, Trisha Yearwood and Vince Gill to the Cubby Bear.

Jansons left the Cubby Bear in the wake of the baseball strike and went back to school to get his MBA at the Keller Graduate School of Management.

Jansons plans to bring up and coming bands on the country scene to Dakota Jakes. "I'm trying to stir things up, to bring bands on the cutting edge of country music," he said.

New owners at Dakota Jakes also have an impressive background. There are eight investors with three of them responsible for overall management. They are Susan Schnell, president; Jim Edlund, treasurer; and David Kaufman, chairman. They previously managed the OTB Winners Circle, a chain of 12 off-track-betting facilities throughout the Chicago metropolitan area.

The owners spent $100,000 renovating the site, which was formerly a country bar. Dakota Jakes boasts the largest dance floor in Lake County at 10,000 square feet, said Edlund.

The saloon will have nightly line dance lessons, live entertainment on Fridays and Saturdays and will sponsor various sports leagues.

Dakota Jakes will also offer a casual dining menu of sandwiches, appetizers and Friday fish fries. Dakota Jakes also offers banquet facilities. It has space for parties up to 200 people.

Tipping while traveling never-ending concern

by JIM WARNKEN,
PRESIDENT, NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

The most common question regarding the custom of tipping for services on a cruise ship is, who and how much should be tipped?

Cabin stewards generally are tipped $2.50 per day, and waiters get the same. The busboy would get $1.25 per day. The aforementioned are given the last day of the cruise.

Deck stewards, bar waiters and bellboys are usually given 15 percent at the time of service.

Let's get back to land and the world of hotels. A concierge (the guy who gets the taxi, theatre tickets, etc.) would get $1 per day depending on services rendered. Baggage porters should get 50 cents per bag, but not less than $1.

Maids should get anywhere between 50 cents and $1 per day, depending how much of a mess your room was after the party.

If taking a tour, the guide will expect something in his hand when he offers to shake yours while the bus is unloading. Fifty cents to $1 will make him happy. At the end of a tour, the bus driver is usually given 50 cents a day.

A tour that boasts "all tips included" can really save you some cash!

Traveling abroad changes the rules slightly. For instance, in China and even some places in the South Pacific, tipping may actually offend people. That's changing, though. (Seems these folks are beginning to enjoy being offended!)

In most countries in Europe, the tip is already added to the bill in restaurants and hotels. It's called a service charge. In these cases, it is customary to tip only to the next guilder, mark, etc. (This is never more than 70 or 80 cents.)

When traveling abroad, always look at your bills to see if a tip has been added. If in doubt, ask.

LIFE'S A BEAR

DONNA ABEAR

Communicate, medicate and celebrate

My husband and I recently celebrated our seventh wedding anniversary. Now, I know that a few of you more astute readers out there are suddenly scratching your heads saying, "Seven years? Wait a minute, a kid in college..." Yes, you are correct—it's that new math. Confusing, isn't it?

So, as I was saying, we just celebrated our seventh wedding anniversary. I'm not sure which one that is—you know, paper, silver, gold—my guess is it's sandpaper, since this is supposed to be that critical year where boredom sets in and suddenly you get this itch, which is commonly referred to as the "seven year itch."

Now, if anyone had asked me earlier in the year if this could happen in my marriage, I would have laughed in their face. "Ha, ha, ha, ha, ho! Hee!" (First, I would have eaten a Tic Tac. You should always do this before laughing in someone's face.) As luck would have it, I laughed too soon. Or thought about it, anyway. Because my husband, just days before our anniversary, got the "itch."

Don't feel bad for me, readers. I can handle it. I've never been one to stroll through life thinking it's a bowl of cherries. Because then I would have named this column "Life's a Bowl of Cherries." No, not me. I take what life gives me and I deal with it.

So let me tell you how it happened. There we were, fighting over whose turn it was to change the baby's diaper, when my husband announces, "I don't know what it is, but suddenly my feet are itching like crazy."

"Nice try, honey," I tell him, my voice dripping with sarcasm. "But it's your turn. Just hold your breath. You can do it."

"No, really. I'm not kidding. My feet itch really bad."

And then it hit me. Our seventh anniversary was only three days away. And my husband's feet were itching. Oh, the shame. This couldn't be happening.

"Why don't you just say what you really mean? You're tired of our marriage!" I told him.

"Huh?"

"I always thought that the 'seven year itch' was just an old wives tale. And now it's happening to me!"

"Your feet itch, too?"

"What? No, my feet don't itch! You're the one with the problem!"

"Now we're getting somewhere. So what do you think it is?"

"I refuse to discuss this in front of the baby!"

"Huh?"

I don't know what it is about men, but whenever we women try to have a meaningful conversation with them, they usually end up saying, "Huh?" Anyway, we continued our conversation after the children were in bed.

"OK," my husband began, "the kids are sleeping. Now, can we start again? Like I tried to tell you before, my feet itch really bad."

"What do you want me to do about it?" I asked, steeling myself for his answer.

"Do we have any medicated foot powder?"

"Huh?" I said. Sometimes you have to speak to them in language they understand.

"You know, Dr. Scholl's or something."

"Will it save our marriage?"

"Huh?" he answered.

"Do you want me to spell it out? Will this foot powder solve your problem?"

"Yes!"

Well, I'm happy to report that it did. His feet no longer itch, and we're still together. Who would have thought. Medicated foot powder for the seven year itch. I guess it just goes to show you—the key to a happy marriage is a little foot powder, and a lot of communication.

Or, as my husband would say—"Huh?"

CADA dealers plan Midwest's largest gun show

A large selection of some of the world's finest guns, edged weapons, and related accouterments will be on display and offered for sale June 10 and 11 at Rockford's Metro Centre in downtown Rockford. Good food

Havarti to tantalize appetites

June is the time when our tastebuds turn to lighter, greener menus. A perfect complement to a summer salad is the buttery mild taste of Havarti cheese. Havarti cheese now comes in various flavors, from jalapeno to dill to pesto. For a refreshing and satisfying summer meal try this:

Grilled Vegetable and Beef Salad

3 cups red, green and yellow pepper strips, cut 1-inch wide

2 cups zucchini and yellow summer squash slices, cut 1/2 inch thick

1/2 cup (4 ounces) vinaigrette dressing

4 ounces cooked roast beef, cut in strips

6 ounces Wisconsin Havarti or Dill Havarti cheese, cut in 1/4-inch chunks

2 quarts torn assorted salad greens

1/4 cup (1 ounce) grated Wisconsin Asiago cheese

Toss vegetables with dressing. Drain, reserving dressing. Grill vegetables over medium coals for 15 minutes or until tender turning frequently. Return to reserved dressing; chill. At serving time, toss vegetables and dressing with beef and Havarti cheese. Spoon onto bed of salad greens. Garnish with freshly grated Asiago. Makes 6 servings.

Movie Pick

Gibson's 'Braveheart' is exciting epic flick

Australian actor and movie "hunk" Mel Gibson has already proved that he is more than a pretty face with a penchant for daredevil antics and a good comedy sense.

His critically acclaimed trip into the land of Shakespeare in "Hamlet," and his double duty, directing and starring in "The Man With No Face," raised him above simple leading-man status.

In his latest movie, "Braveheart," Gibson again directs, stars and produces, but this time he does himself proud in a three-hour epic about a 13th century Scottish revolt against British rule.

In the wake of Liam Neeson's success as another famous Scot, "Rob Roy," Gibson's film soars high above his predecessor.

Gibson plays a mild-mannered Scottish farmer content with his peasant's life with his lovely wife played by Catherine McCormack, until a marauding gang of British soldiers do her in most violently.

It is then that we see a complete metamorphosis in Gibson's

Mel Gibson

William Wallace, which turns him into a fiery rebel who leads a revolt that attempts to kill everything English in sight.

Gibson's battle scenes are among the bloodiest, most authentic, yet most imaginative ever filmed. The excessive violence and gore tempts one to look away, but the realism of the flying arrows, severed bodies, etc., keeps the audience staring at the screen hypnotically.

This is a film epic in the same vein as "Gone With the Wind," and "Dances With Wolves." Gibson's story is an epic one to match the film's length, but a good editor could have cut a minimal half-hour out of the film. Eliminating a few of the side plots that do not add to the story would have done the trick.

Every epic must have its villain. This one has Patrick McGoohan playing England's king with only half-hearted depravity.

Gibson is one of the few actors who can remain sexy despite long scraggly hair, a blue face, and a non-machismo kilt.

His depiction of the mayhem of the medieval battle is not only outstanding, but probably the best part of the picture, along side of his own portrayal of the real-life Scottish hero, Wallace.

The outstanding photography is credited to the cameraman John Toll, who also shot the well-done "Legends of the Fall."

Despite all these pro-points, we found it hard to last the last 45 minutes, so we are giving "Braveheart" four out of five stars only because of its lack of tight editing.—by GLORIA DAVIS

DiMarco's offers exquisite Italian food, ambiance

DiMarco's Restaurant, located in downtown Antioch, has an intimate atmosphere and ambiance that is perfect for a romantic evening or a family night out.

Owner/Manager Donna DiMarco takes pride in the fact that DiMarco's is a family-run business, and that their commitment to giving their patrons the best is always met. DiMarco's was featured in the June issue of North Shore Magazine, receiving a three-star rating. The News Sun rates DiMarco's at three-and-a-half stars.

DiMarco's specializes in both northern and southern Italian cuisine and boasts a full menu of Italian fare. DiMarco's is best known for such dishes as calamari, mussels marinara, Ravioli Alforno with shrimp, Formaggio, and especially their Veal Venezia, a delicious family recipe you won't find anywhere else.

Seafood lovers can feast on the Zuppa Di Pesce, which features an abundant variety of seafood in a succulent marinara sauce over pasta. On Friday nights, take advantage of the restaurant's special on crab legs (2 lbs.) for $12.99. Recently added specials include black pasta with green lip mussels done in tomato basil sauce. Also, pasta pollo, a delightful blend of mostaccioli, black olives, sun dried tomatoes, red and green pepper, strip chicken off the bone in garlic butter sauce. For dessert, DiMarco's offers a variety of pastries, or you can top off your meal with a tasty cup of cappuccino.

DiMarco's has seating for 110 and can accommodate banquets for up to 150 people. Donna said, "We've been in Antioch for five years now and have grown from a tiny storefront to a wonderful restaurant. Although we've expanded, we've been able to maintain the ambiance and intimate atmosphere diners enjoy."

You can find DiMarco's at 883 Main Street in Antioch, or may call them at 395-8883. DiMarco's is open at 5 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays; at 5 p.m. on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays; and is closed on Mondays.

Horoscope

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Further thought is needed about a business matter you and a partner are considering. You'll make a dynamic impression at a group meeting in the middle of the week. Lovers share special private times.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You'll make an important career decision this week. It's also a favorable time for travel and dealing with those who live far away. The weekend works its magic and brings couples closer.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) This week you're good at promoting yourself and the beliefs you espouse. New chances for business success arise if you're open to them. Generally, you'll be very wrapped up in your work.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Though you'll save some time this week for financial record-keeping, the major accent is on fun activities with children. If single, the dating scene looks favorable as well. The weekend is particularly romantic.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's a good week for reaching agreements with others. If you have been feeling somewhat alienated from a certain loved one, this week brings a renewal of good feelings between you. The weekend is good for domestic chores.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your insights are shrewd and accurate where business is concerned. A day trip toward the middle of the week will prove to be an exciting adventure. This opens up new opportunities. Feelings deepen in romance over the weekend.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You're good at getting your points across to children, but be sure to coat your advice with tact. The issue which comes up is particularly sensitive. This is also a favorable week for shopping and business interests.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your cheerfulness and outgoing manner make you all the more effective in winning others to your viewpoint. This makes you quite popular on the social scene now. The weekend is great for romance and happy times.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You could receive a confidential financial tip this week that will prove helpful. Mental work goes extremely well. However, you're not up to your usually robust self and energy lags toward the end of the week.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your judgment is keen this week about money matters. The social theme continues to be strong in your life. However, don't get so caught up that you neglect work. This weekend, feel free to enjoy happy times with friends.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Your thinking is sharp, but you'll tend to be a bit too outspoken this week. Although you feel passionately about a certain subject, you must understand that others feel equally so who disagree with you. Avoid controversy.

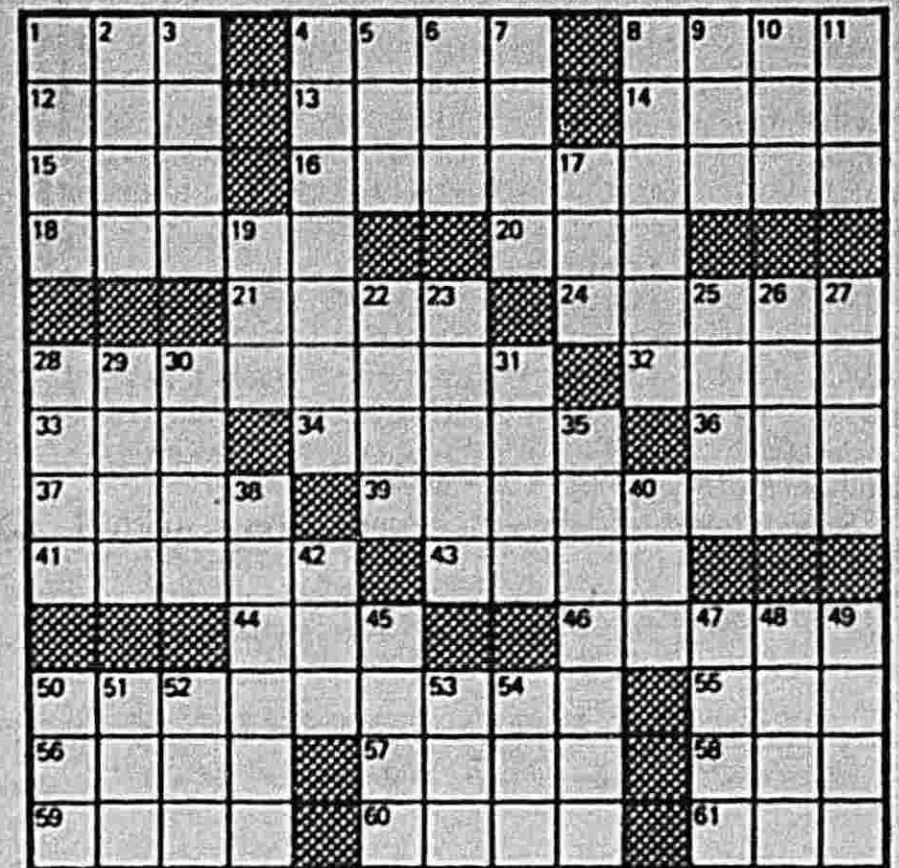

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your social life is apt to be busy, but the time you do have for yourself this week will be well spent on an intellectual project. Some think about returning to the classroom. Travel is favored.

Bank adds to Oklahoma relief

BANNOCKBURN—Employees of Success National Bank and the bank itself donated $1,190 to the American Red Cross for use by the Oklahoma City Relief Fund. Lilly Chubril, teller manager of the Libertyville office of the bank, suggested the donation as a way for bank employees "to express our deepest sympathies and condolences to the victims and their families." Bank employees made contributions, and in turn the bank made a matching donation. The money is to be used to help offset medical and funeral costs for the victims and their families of the Oklahoma City bombing. In a letter to the fund, Chubril asked them to "accept this donation with our thoughts and prayers" for the victims and their families. Success National Bank is headquartered in Lincolnshire and has bank offices in Libertyville, Northbrook, Hubbard Woods, Lincolnwood and Lincoln Park.

SWALCO helps reduce two kinds of waste

NEAL TUCKER
Staff Reporter

The Solid Waste Agency of Lake County intends to give a crash course in business mathematics with its environomics seminar.

Hosted by the Village of Grayslake and the Grayslake Area Chamber of Commerce June 15, the basic formula espoused at the breakfast seminar is: environment + economics = good business.

Using their particular expertise, representatives of SWALCO will show businesses how to pinpoint waste in a company that can be reduced or recycled, calculate and cut the waste related costs in each business and locate companies that recycle those waste materials.

The Grayslake Chamber of Commerce monthly newsletter has some facts and information to help business owners decide if the meeting pertains to them.

The biggest sales pitch is the indication that businesses in Lake County are a very prevalent minority when it comes to waste. Even though the population of the county is roughly 540,000, businesses in the commercial and industrial sectors still generate 52 percent of the total waste in the county.

The seminar will be delivered by waste haulers and business representatives in the county who are already practicing environomics to great success as well as to great savings. Waste reduction truly does mean saving money. One large company in Lake County estimates it has already saved $12.8 million with its waste reduction efforts. The Chamber contends many of these practices can be applied to businesses of any size for relative savings.

After the two-hour seminar, which begins at 7:30 a.m. following a 7 a.m. continental breakfast, attendees will be sent off with a handbook so they can further investigate how to apply the waste and cost-cutting measures in their own realm.

To register for the $10 seminar call or FAX your form to the 223-6888. Anyone with questions or a desire to participate in the seminar may call Leisa Niemotka of SWALCO at 336-9340.

United Way aims to expand charitable base

BILL SCHROEDER
Publisher

Acknowledging that giving to United Way of Lake County has leveled off, the 1995 general campaign chairman vowed to broaden the base of the charitable organization that touches one-third of the county population every year.

Patrick J. Allin, speaking at a CEO breakfast, vowed that United Way will reach smaller companies with an ongoing drive where there is "no beginning and no end."

Allin addressed chief executives at a breakfast at Royal Melbourne Country Club, Long Grove, sponsored by Moore Business Forms.

Federal employees, basically military and civilian personnel from Great Lakes Naval Training Center, have provided the spark that keeps the annual fund drive moving upward.

Otherwise, the drive has experienced four straight years of what Allin characterized as "flat." He said the county's 10 largest businesses provide 60 percent of the United Way donations through corporate gifts and individual giving.

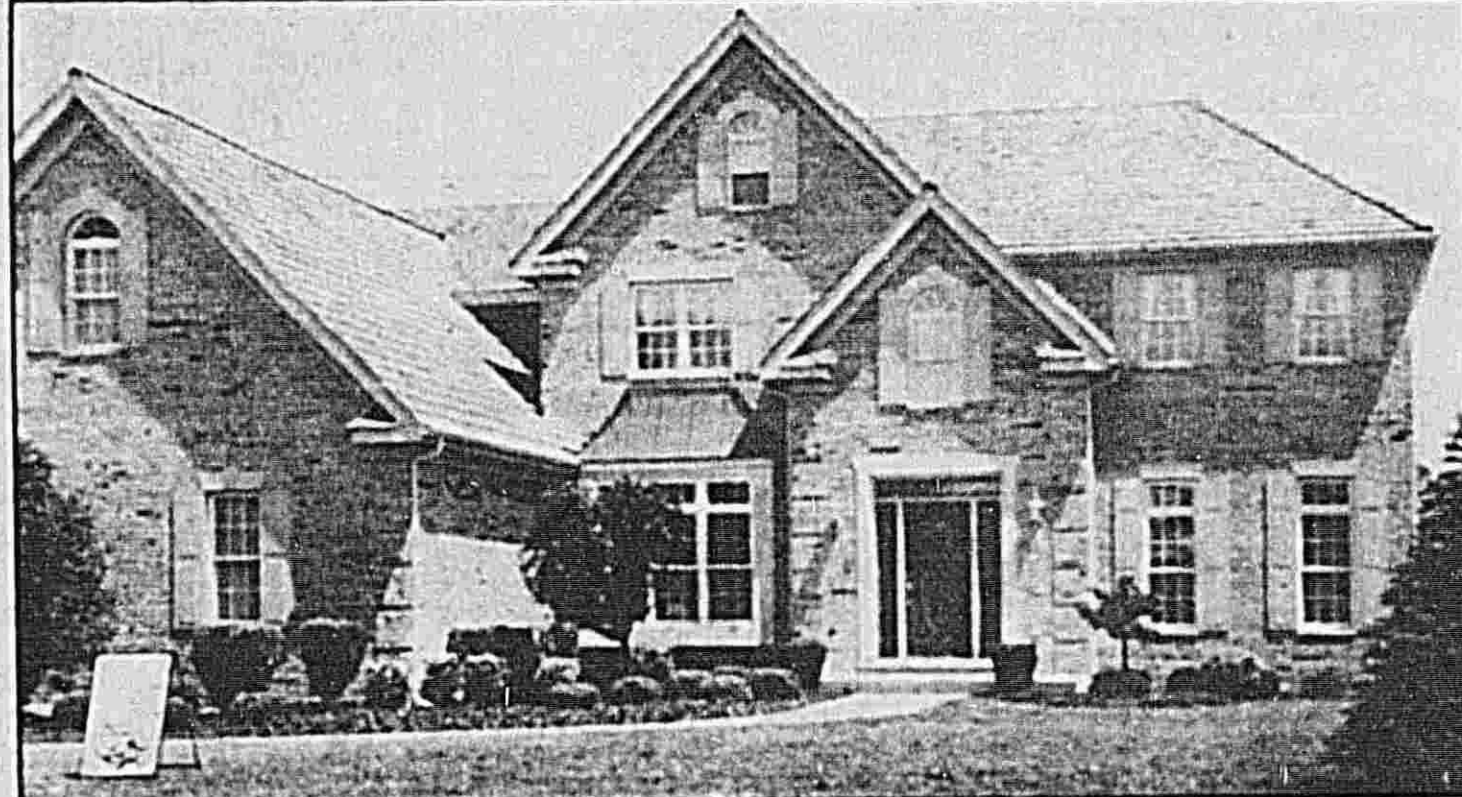

Rear Adm. Mack C. Gaston, retiring Great Lakes commander, was keynote speaker, stressing the leadership responsibilities of business persons. "People are counting on us," Gaston declared.

The naval officer stressed that business leaders should "care deeply" about the problems of society, accepting individual responsibility.

Gaston related how a Great Lakes petty officer took leave to go to the Oklahoma City terrorist bomb site as a volunteer to "help any way he could." That's the type of individual responsibility society needs, Gaston exhorted.

The popular Lake County civic figure provided a call to action for the annual United Way drive that will kick off in the fall:

"Let's do it big in '95," Adm. Gaston declared.

INVESTMENT TRENDS— Hiring trend holds up in county

Noah A. Seldenberg,
Investment Representative of Edward D. Jones & Co.

Use retirement options

They say you can't teach an old dog new tricks, but many people are discovering a new way to use an old type of investment.

Not too long ago, annuities were familiar only to retirees, who used them for income during their golden years. But in recent years they've gained popularity with the younger set, as a way to prepare for retirement.

Traditional retirement-planning tools such as individual retirement accounts (IRAs) remain an excellent way to secure a comfortable future. Being able to put away $2,000 every year and have it grow tax-deferred can help you build a sizable nest egg. And those who have the opportunity to contribute to a retirement plan at work should certainly do so.

But those looking for additional retirement-planning ideas might want to consider annuities.

An annuity is a contract with an insurance company. Like an IRA, an annuity is not an actual investment; rather, it is the vehicle into which investments are placed — for example, stocks, bonds and mutual funds. And like IRAs, the income earned on investments placed in an annuity contract grows tax-deferred.

The power of tax deferral can be astounding. To illustrate, assume you made a one-time $10,000 investment earning 8 percent, compounded annually. If you were in the 28 percent tax bracket, your investment would be worth $53,659 after 30 years. But if you had placed the $10,000 in a tax-deferred account earning the same amount, your money would grow to more than $100,000 in the same time period.

Annuities are available in two varieties: fixed and variable. With fixed annuities, the insurance company offers the policy holder a fixed rate of return for a set period of time, usually from one to 10 years. Variable annuities, on the other hand, pay variable returns. They can include a variety of investments, such as growth stocks, international stocks, growth-and-income stocks, corporate bonds and money-market funds. The return on the variable annuity is directly related to the performance of the investments within the annuity.

Deciding whether to choose fixed or variable annuities depends on your objectives and risk tolerance. While fixed annuities offer a reliable, steady level of income, variable annuities offer the potential for increasing returns to protect income against the effects of inflation.

Annuities also offer different withdrawal options. For example, if you want a stream of income that you could never outlive, you might annuitize your contract. Annuitization establishes a payout amount based on a specific period of time chosen by the policyholder, or on the policyholder's lifetime. The payments stop after the time period ends or the policyholder dies, and they can't be altered or stopped in any way before that time.

Instead of annuitization, you might choose a flexible withdrawal plan. For example, your contract may allow you to withdraw up to 10 percent of the original investment, or the interest earned, on a monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual basis. Withdrawals can be started or stopped, increased or decreased, within the parameters of the contract at any time.

Retirees have understood the value of annuities for a long time.

The job market is expected to remain bullish in the Lake County area this summer. That is the latest report from Manpower Inc. on job expectations here for July, August and September.

The Third Quarter Employment Outlook Survey states, among company respondents, 29 percent plan to recruit more workers and 3 percent are preparing for staff reductions. No workforce adjustments are seen by the other 68 percent.

"The outlook is up slightly from three months ago," Chuck Bartels of Manpower said, "when 30 percent intended to increase their labor pools while cutbacks were anticipated by 7 percent. At this same time last year, the job picture was similar, as 34 percent projected additional hiring and 10 percent planned reductions."

The best job opportunities this summer are expected in construction, durable and non-durable goods manufacturing, wholesale/retail trade, finance/insurance/real estate and services. Staff cutbacks are predicted in education.

Across the country, high levels of hiring will continue, but the rate of growth will be somewhat slower than in recent quarters. A total of 28 percent say they will add staff, 7 percent intend to cut back, 62 percent expect no change and 3 percent aren't sure.

Manpower Inc. conducts the Employment Outlook Survey on a quarterly basis. It is a measurement of employers' intentions to increase or decrease the permanent workforce, and during its 19-year history has been a significant indicator of employment trends.

Marcus expects to install 'Ridefilm™'

IMAX Corp. and Marcus Theatres Corp. of Milwaukee have signed a letter of intent for the planned introduction of IMAX Ridefilm systems in Illinois and Wisconsin. The companies are also exploring locations for giant-screen IMAX 3D theatres.

Appleton and Waukesha, Wis., and Gurnee and Orland Park, Ill., have been identified as potential sites for the initial installation, which is scheduled to be in operation in late 1995. Site selection will be completed over the next 30 to 60 days. It will be the first of the new IMAX Ridefilm simulators to be introduced in the U.S., as well as the first to be located within a multiplex theatre complex.

IMAX is the pioneer and leader in giant-screen, large format film and motion simulator entertainment. The Marcus Corp. is a leading operator of movie theatres, motels, hotels, resorts and restaurants in the midwestern region of the U.S.

Marcus Theatres' flagship IMAX Ridefilm installation will utilize IMAX's new proprietary motion simulation system, which provides viewers with a dynamic, realistic and immersive ride experience. This, and the additional IMAX Ridefilm™ systems covered in the agreement, will be located at multiplex theatre complexes and adjoining family entertainment facilities being developed by Marcus.

In commenting on the new relationship, IMAX Vice Chairman Richard L. Gelfond said, "We are delighted that the Marcus Corp. and its Marcus Theatres unit has chosen IMAX as its motion simulation partner. Not only do they have financial and management strength, but they have always been at the forefront of new technology in exhibition throughout their 60-year history."

"Marcus Theatres' introduction of our new Ridefilm system at one of its highly successful multiplex locations in Wisconsin or Illinois will mark the debut of this remarkable out-of-home entertainment experience in the Midwest," Gelfond continued. "We are confident this will be the first of many locations in which they will include IMAX technology."

The system's compact design brings theme-park quality simulation attractions such as Universal Studio's "Back to the Future—The Ride" to venues such as urban entertainment centers, shopping malls, casinos and multiplex movie theatres. The IMAX Ridefilm was invented by IMAX Vice Chairman Douglas Trumbull, the world-renowned filmmaker and simulation pioneer who, along with IMAX, provided the film making and technical team responsible for the Back to the Future ride.

FOA Bank leader in small business loans

First of America Bank Corporation has the best record in the nation for small business lending, according to an analysis of federal banking records by the Wall Street Journal. Nationally, First of America outranked 33 other U.S. banks with assets of more than $20 billion in small business loans.

Locally, First of America Bank reports that 94 percent of total commercial loans in the Lake, Cook, DuPage and Will Counties are considered small business loans—loans that are under $1 million. "Our strategic focus has always been community banking and the report findings on small business lending demonstrate our continuing commitment to that philosophy," stated Regional President Nancy L. Singer. "We work directly with local companies to support their business development and expansion in our community, which creates jobs and wealth in northeastern Illinois."

Beginning two years ago, banks were required to file information about their small business lending activity to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. An analysis of these reports by the Wall Street Journal indicated that many of the big banks that claimed to be advocates of small business were exaggerating their small business performance.

The federal banking report data from June of 1994 indicates that First of America Bank Corporation reported $2.3 billion in small business loans which accounts for over 57 percent of the corporation's domestic business loans. In comparison, Citicorp had $1.8 billion in small business loans on its books. That is 22 percent less than First of America Bank which has one-fifth of Citicorp's total assets. Chase Manhattan's small business loans accounted for less than 10 percent of its $9.4 billion in domestic business loans.

First of America Bank Corporation, headquartered in Kalamazoo, Michigan, has $17 billion in loans and $20 billion in deposits and serves over 3.2 million households in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Florida. The company engages in commercial banking, retail banking and provides trust and other financial services, as well as mortgage origination services in North Carolina, South Carolina, Missouri and Arizona. Based on total assets, First of America is ranked 32nd among banking companies in the United States.

CLC holds loan seminar

An evening seminar on "Preparing and Presenting Your Bank Loan Request" will be presented from 6:30 to 10 p.m. June 8 in Room C002 at the College of Lake County, 19351 W. Washington St., Grayslake.

Sponsored by the Center for Economic Development's Small Business Development Center, the program will be presented by Fred Alford, vice-president of First Midwest Bank N.A., Buffalo Grove, and Leonard D. Weitz, CPA, managing partner of Mann, Cohen, Weitz, L.L.C., Deerfield.

Weitz will discuss how individuals can prepare before applying for a bank loan by developing a business plan and supporting documents. Alford, a senior lending officer for First Midwest Bank, will help participants understand their bankers' perspective, the approval process, types of bank financing, short and long-term financing and alternative sources of financing. The cost is $25 per person.

The workshop is sponsored by the Small Business Development Center in cooperation with the U.S. Small Business Administration and the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs. To register, call 223-3633 or fax to 223-9371. Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover will be accepted.

MURPHY ON REAL ESTATE

Common mistakes made at contract

In the excitement of contract time, it is important to understand all of the parameters of the written agreement. There are a few common misunderstandings that occur during negotiation time. While we are busy with the details of what personal property is included, and what date will finally be the mutually convenient closing date for all parties, we need to be aware of a few minor issues in the agreement to purchase.

Earnest money are those funds given by the buyer to the seller in an offer to purchase a piece of property to show "good faith" of their intentions to purchase a specific property. Specifically, the earnest money is a negotiable area of the agreement. In some areas, any amount from 5 to 10 percent of the purchase price is acceptable. However, there have been complications on how it is written. The agreements commonly used in our area will ask for an initial amount of anywhere from $500 to $1,000 on presentation. If the agreement is accepted, the earnest money can escalate to a higher amount in an agreed period of time. For example, a contract may call for an initial earnest amount of $1,000 to escalate to 10 percent of the purchase amount in 10 days. It is often written with the understanding that the earnest money will total 10 percent of the purchase price. What often happens is that the contract is written in such a way that 10 percent plus the initial amount is actually the amount received, making the total amount of earnest money over a 10 percent figure, causing some bookkeeping challenges at the closing.

Another challenge to the earnest money issue is the variances from area to area. In our Lake County area, the agreements are written to have 5 to 10 percent of the purchase price held "in earnest" to show good faith in the purchase of the property while other perimeters of the contract are being resolved. Some areas of the country use a simple initial amount of earnest money to set the agreement in motion. Those families that are transferring need to be informed of the differences in purchasing from one area to another. Whatever is acceptable for the area needs to be carefully explained to all parties, and how the money will be handled in the case of default. Be sure to familiarize yourself with the customary practices in your area.

Ryan lists top 10 consumer complaints in Illinois

Atty. Gen. Jim Ryan has announced Illinois' top 10 consumer complaints, citing home-related problems as No. 1, followed by automobile-related sales and repair. In 1994, the office received more than 28,000 complaints—more than half of those in the home and automobile-related categories.

"Each year, the attorney general's office sees these two categories at the top of the list, perhaps because a home and a car are the two most expensive purchases a consumer will make," Ryan said.

"This reinforces the fact that consumers must do their homework before buying services or merchandise. To do that, consumers should contact as many sources for information as possible—even the attorney general's office—to learn about the company or the service and its track record," Ryan added.

Ryan's consumer protection division

Statewide Top 10 Consumer Complaints

1. Home-related (27 percent): Including construction, home improvement.
2. Automobile-related (26 percent): Including used car sales, non-warranty auto repair.
3. Finance (8 percent): Including credit, financial institutions.
4. Contests and Promotions (7 percent)
5. Leisure and Travel (7 percent): Including tourism, lodging, periodical subscriptions.
6. Mail Order (4 percent)
7. Health (3 percent): Including medical and health services, health clubs.
8. Electronics (3 percent)
9. Insurance (2 percent)
10. Investments (1 percent): Including investment schemes, business opportunities.

seeks to educate consumers to help avoid fraudulent activity, to seek restitution for those who have been defrauded, and to penalize those who violate the Consumer Protection Act.

On the national level, the National Assn. of Attorneys General (NAAG) announced that automobiles topped the list in its unofficial survey of 30 states. For the second year in a row, automobile complaints were No. 1, while home repair complaints finished No. 2. The automobile complaints included new and used car sales, lease rental, auto repair and general complaints.

Also on the NAAG list: (3) telemarketing, (4) mail order, (5) contest/sweepstakes, (6) retail sales, (7) credit, (8) furniture/appliances/home furnishings, (9) subscriptions, and (10) landlord-tenant/mobile home, respectively, as the main complaints.

The NAAG Auto Repair Task Force has been studying the auto repair business, bringing together industry, consumer groups and government to help protect the public interest. The task force consists of 30 states, including Illinois, and the Federal Trade Commission, and will issue a report later this year.

Consumers who wish to contact the attorney general's office to file a complaint or seek information may call a toll-free, statewide consumer fraud hotline, 1-800-252-8666. Written complaints with copies of receipts or related information should be mailed to: Illinois Attorney General's Office, Public Service Intake Center, 100 W. Randolph, Chicago, IL 60601; or 500 S. Second St., Springfield, IL 62706.

Strategic planting can maximize growth potential of plants

While traveling to Elmhurst the other day, I couldn't help notice how much further along the flowering crabs, pears and serviceberry were than the same plant in the Gurnee, Libertyville area. The pears, flowering crabs and serviceberry have been flowering for about two weeks up here, yet in the Elmhurst area they already have eight to 10 feet of new growth and some of the crabs are showing berries. The conifers in Elmhurst have already burst out of their candle growth showing needles, while many conifers in the Gurnee area have only one to three feet of candle growth showing.

The Redbud is in full flower here in Gurnee and in full leaf in the Elmhurst area. In a 30-mile spread, many plants are two to three weeks ahead of one another. This just helps to reinforce the growing zone that northern Illinois is in. It's obvious that even though we are considered Zone 5, we are definitely the colder area of this zone, and this wet, cooler spring has demonstrated this once again.

This dramatic difference in growth can also be achieved on a residential site, but takes a bit of planning. Ever notice a flowering shrub with a southern exposure seems to flower sooner than that same plant in a northern exposure?

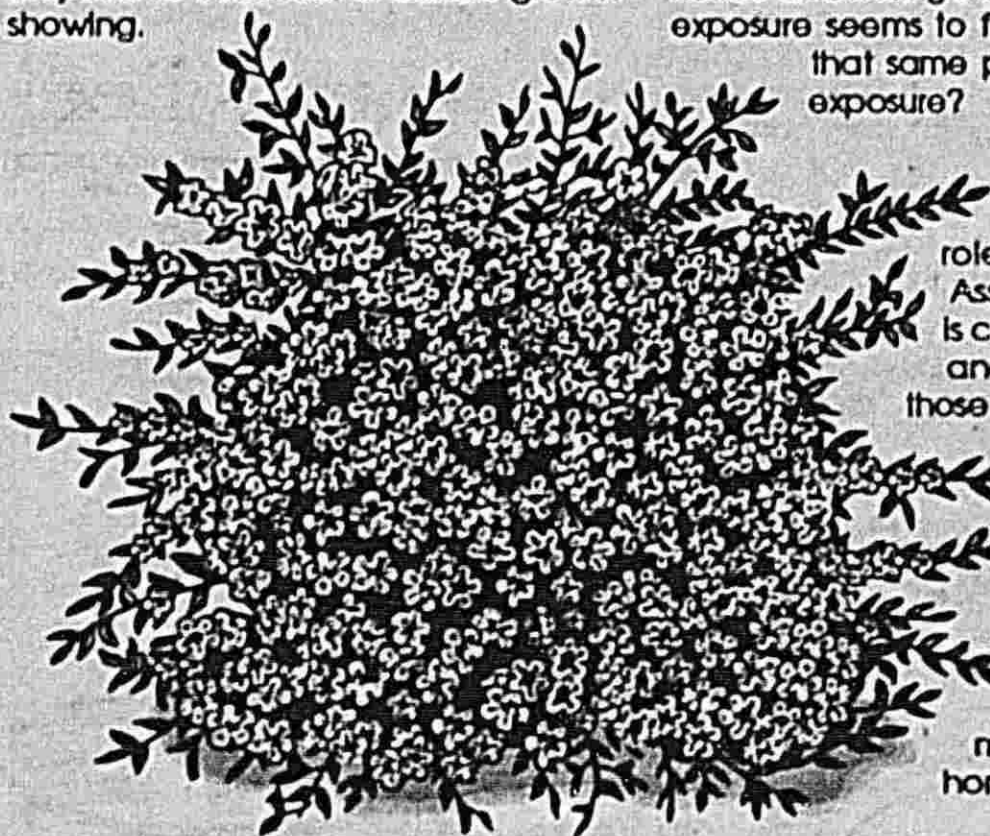

Sun, wind and other abiotic factors play a role in this growth. Assuming your soil pH is correct for the plant and drainage is O.K., those conifers way out in your yard always seem to candle a bit slower than the ones up close to your home. Why? It may be that your home helps to protect a plant, adds more heat to the plant as the sun's rays warm the siding of your home, which forces more growth.

Selecting the proper plant for your site is important and must be considered during the planning process of a landscape. Time and time again we see sun-loving plants in deep shade or tender conifers like the Canadian hemlock or white pine planted out in the windswept northwest exposure of one's site.

By being aware of the many factors involved on one's site, starting from the ground on up, one can enjoy plants through all the growing season.—by MIKE GRECO, landscape architect/owner of Mill Creek Nursery, Wadsworth.

Tips to help yards and, help the environment

While chemical-free, organic gardening may take a little extra time and effort, many home gardeners have discovered that the long-term benefits of safety and a healthier environment are worth the added investment. Following are several tips for a safe and beautiful front yard.

The first step is to make sure you have the raw material to work with. Your lawn may need a little help maintaining the right pH level, between 6.3 and 7.0. Conditioning the soil with limestone will help correct any imbalance.

Water your lawn once a week to a depth of two to three inches to supplement the regular rainfall. This will encourage deeper root growth which will, in turn, help your lawn withstand a drought or other severe weather conditions. Watering in the morning is best to minimize run-off and evaporation.

Once your lawn is up and growing, the next step is to get out the mower. Look for a sturdy, durable and reliable mower. Many do-it-yourself homeowners are turning to a mulching mower. It's a good idea to mow when the grass is completely dry, and try not to cut off more than one third of the blade. When you're done, make sure that the clippings aren't sticking together in clumps, which would mean the grass was too wet. If the tips of the grass blades turn white, that would signal that it's time to sharpen your mower blade.

The next step is to maintain your yard, and to do so means arming yourself with the right tools. Adding a trimmer to your stock of outdoor power equipment is a great start. Your trusty mower is a handy ally, but a mower can only do so much. A trimmer will take care of those touches that most noticeably improve the appearance of a yard.

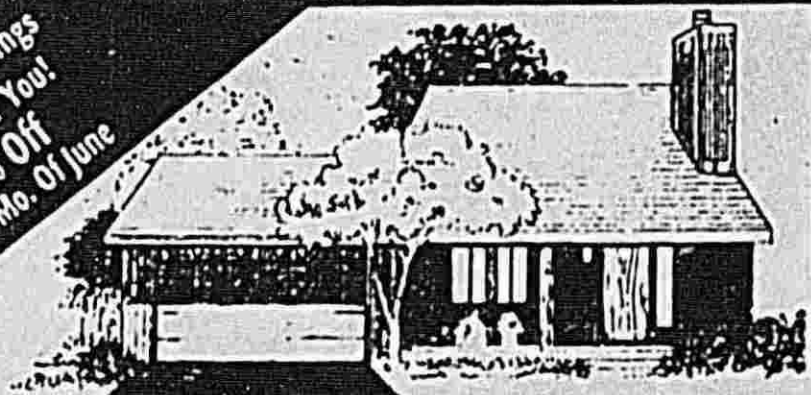

When it comes to pruning the shrubs and trees in your yard, the time, method and amount to cut varies from plant to plant, but the tools remain the same: hedge clippers for soft growth, hand clippers for the smallest branches, and a pair of loppers for medium-sized branches.

When everything is neat and clean, the last step is to add something visually unique, like a row of flowering bulbs along the driveway or a ring of pachysandra around the base of a tree. Start with your fertilizers and soil conditioners. Plant and water your chosen foliage according to its individual needs.

The saying goes "no pain, no gain," but you don't have to knock yourself out to have a beautifully yard without harmful chemicals.

A little effort goes a long way if you plan correctly and use the right tool for the job.

The Strength To Endure

Since early childhood we have been taught that life confronts us with difficult decisions. To a great degree our ability to confront the adversities that come our way depends upon our willingness to prepare and plan ahead. Facing our own inevitable destiny is probably the most difficult decision we may have to make. Our staff is trained to answer your questions and discuss the options that are available when you choose to plan ahead.

How To Survive The Job Search

By Nancy Sakol

Q: Dear Search: Please help me out with a problem I am faced with. I am a high school graduating senior and in the process of writing a resume and filling out employment applications. I have been asked for references, but since I have no work history in my past, I am at a loss for what to use as a reference. Some of these applications are asking for as many as four references. What do you suggest? Thanks for your time. T.G.-Deerfield

A: Dear T.G. It may appear to be a rather difficult task to come up with references if there is no prior work history, however, at this point concentrate on character references. you most likely will find that you have a few choice individuals who will attest to your character being sound. Here is a list of a few:

1. High school Guidance Counselor
2. Teachers
3. Clergymen
4. Friends of family who have known you for many years

You may remember that you mowed lawns for a specific family who would be willing to give a reference on how responsible or meticulous you are about your work. There may have been a family that you did babysitting for quite some time ago who may be willing to tell an employer how reliable and dependable you were. Whom ever it is that you intend to use as a reference, the most important thing to remember is to contact any person that you plan to use. You don't want to have these people caught off guard by having them receive a call asking about someone they may not remember at that instance. How do you go about contacting them to ask for this? You may want to contact your high school Guidance Counselor by telephone and ask if he/she would help you by writing a letter of recommendation for you to use with potential employers. Offer to come by and pick it up to expedite the situation. Contact teachers in the same respect. If unable to reach them during the summer months due to school being out of session, contact your administration office. Most often, they know where to get in touch over the summer months and perhaps they would leave your telephone number for the teachers to call you back. Contacting clergy speaks for itself, and friends of the family...well, if you contact them by telephone or go to visit, all you have to do is ask! "While I am in the market for employment, would you at all mind if I were to use you as a character reference?" That way, no surprises! Good luck to you!

Note: Nancy Sakol is a licensed personnel professional and President of Superior Personnel in Gurnee.

Bench presser Chapman hopes to leave mark at national meet

STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

Leroy Chapman will be seeking one of his goals when he competes in a national bench pressing competition June 10 in Cincinnati.

"The record is 434 pounds," Chapman said.

Chapman has been in a 12-week training program at his home gym of Chandler's Gym in Lindenhurst. He competes for the Power Elite team of Illinois, making the squad by finishing in the top two of his region. He bench pressed 420 pounds there.

"I have done 445 in the gym," he said. "I go there because I like the atmosphere. You get real lifters in gyms like that."

The team also includes Karen Koe of Fox Lake. "The sport has definitely grown for women and young people," he said.

Chapman works out for two hours, five days a week. He does not have a coach per say, but reads the latest in weight lifting in Powerlifting magazine.

He competes in the natural athlete division, an important distinction. He opposes the use of steroids in weight lifting. Urine analysis, blood tests and polygraph tests are among the methods used to curb drug use.

"It used to be rampant in the 1980s, but now they are really watching it. Steroids gives you a false sense of reality," Chapman said. "If you fail a test, all your records are wiped out."

The meet in Ohio features three rounds, but one has to clear the first round before moving on.

"You want to be intense enough and not be afraid of the weight. It is a mental sport," he said.

Chapman lifted weights as a youth in Round Lake playing football for the Round Lake Panthers. He now is a national submaster, age 30-35.

"Many weight lifters peak in their mid 30s, but you cannot start at age 26," he said.

He was a fast defensive end for the Panthers, running a 4.9 40-yard dash.

He was inspired to return to lifting by Mike Collett. His accomplishments include a fifth-place at a pro-am meet at Chicago Heights. The national qualifier in 1993 gained first place at the Northeast Illinois regional in Mattoon and won state earlier at Mt. Vernon.

He overcame a shoulder injury last year.

One of his goals is to tryout for the Olympic team. The sport will be a demonstration sport in Atlanta's Olympics next year.

He works for HFK Corp. of Mundelein, which has been supportive of his bench pressing efforts. The company also has a Golden Gloves boxer on its staff.

The top submasters are Brian Cox, who has bench pressed 511 pounds and Dave Smith, who has bench pressed 465 pounds.

Chapman will compete in a drug-free meet in Niles at the Strong Athletes Against Steroids meet in December.

Chapman helps Antioch youth football program as a coach. "It gives a chance to give something back," he said, adding his inspiration often came from coaches.

"I will keep going as long as I progress," he said.

Blue squad wins two of three games

A pitching gem and a rally accounted for two wins for the Waukegan Midwest All-Star Blue team in three games.

The Blue team downed Lake Forest 6-5 Monday in a North Suburban Colt League game. Nelson Jim gained the win in relief.

The team scored 3 runs in the sixth inning to overcome a 5-3 deficit at Simmons Field in Kenosha.

Scott Dildgood, a shortstop, led the attack with 2 hits, 2 RBIs and 2 runs scored. Dan Adair had a hit and RBI. D.J. Biotenschoen of Antioch had an RBI single.

Matt Schweitzer of Crystal Lake earned the shutout win, 1-0 over Libertyville. He limited the opposition to 3 hits and fanned 8 batters.

"The pitching is what did it," Manager Ralph Bufano said. Libertyville won the second game 8-3.

In upcoming Waukegan Midwest All-Stars action, the Red team faces Ottawa in a 12 p.m. doubleheader at Porio Field in Kenosha on June 10. The Blue team battles Prospect June 9 at 7 p.m. at Porio, located at 15th St. in Kenosha.

BHS ensures no Carmel miracles in '95

STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

There will be no miracles from Mundelein this spring.

There were no timely singles, wild pitches or walks for Carmel High's baseball team. Barrington gave CHS an early opportunity then gained complete control in a 12-0, six-inning win. The semifinal sectional round ouster Saturday left the Corsairs unsuccessful in a second straight bid by an under .500 team to gain a state quarterfinal bid.

Carmel faithful knew it would not be their day early. Senior catcher Adam Haravon took a throw which hit his jaw during warm-ups. Haravon was taken to Good Shepherd Hospital and Carmel lost a major offensive threat and a .321 average.

"I do not know if the outcome would have been different today. But it forced us to resort back to a lineup which has not been successful. He would have come to bat in the first inning with the bases loaded. He had been hitting the ball well. It is a shame for the kid who waits all year for this and he is not allowed to play the game. He got hit with the ball being thrown in," Carmel Coach Chuck Gandolfi said. "The kid that feels the ball feels bad."

Carmel ended the year 15-18 with another regional title. Gandolfi had nothing but praise for Barrington.

"Barrington is a very solid team," he said. "I give them all the credit in the world."

Rob Branch took over after a shaky start. Recovering from a bases-loaded situation in the first inning, he 1-hit Carmel as Barrington showed why the Broncos won 32 of 38 games.

"He did a good job," BHS Coach Kirby Smith said. "We had some timely hitting. We have done so far and feel fortunate to be where we are. Baseball is a very unpredictable sport."

On Branch's effort: "He kept the fastball down most of the time. He had a curveball and change going and pretty good command of all of them," Smith said.

Lead-off hitter Brad Salata started the first inning with a walk and stole second. He moved to third on a sacrifice by Kevin Russell. Two more walks to Mike McMahon and Eric Ames loaded the bases, having Carmel fans thinking of a return trip to the state finals in Geneva. But a flyout ended the inning and Carmel's hopes. What followed was 5 strikeouts by Branch and only one Carmel hit.

McMahon, the sophomore pitching prospect, singled in the fourth. He was sacrificed to second base. Two batters then grounded back to the pitcher.

Barrington was doing what it does best. A 5-run second inning broke the game wide open. The Broncos added 2 in the third, one in the fourth and fifth and ended the game with the 10-run rule with 3 in the sixth.

Lead-off hitter Billy Bey reached all four times and had a pair of hits; Northwestern University-bound Nick Franzouse had a single, double, walk and scored 3 runs; Eric Alley walked three times and scored as many runs; Dave Dato had a pair of hits.

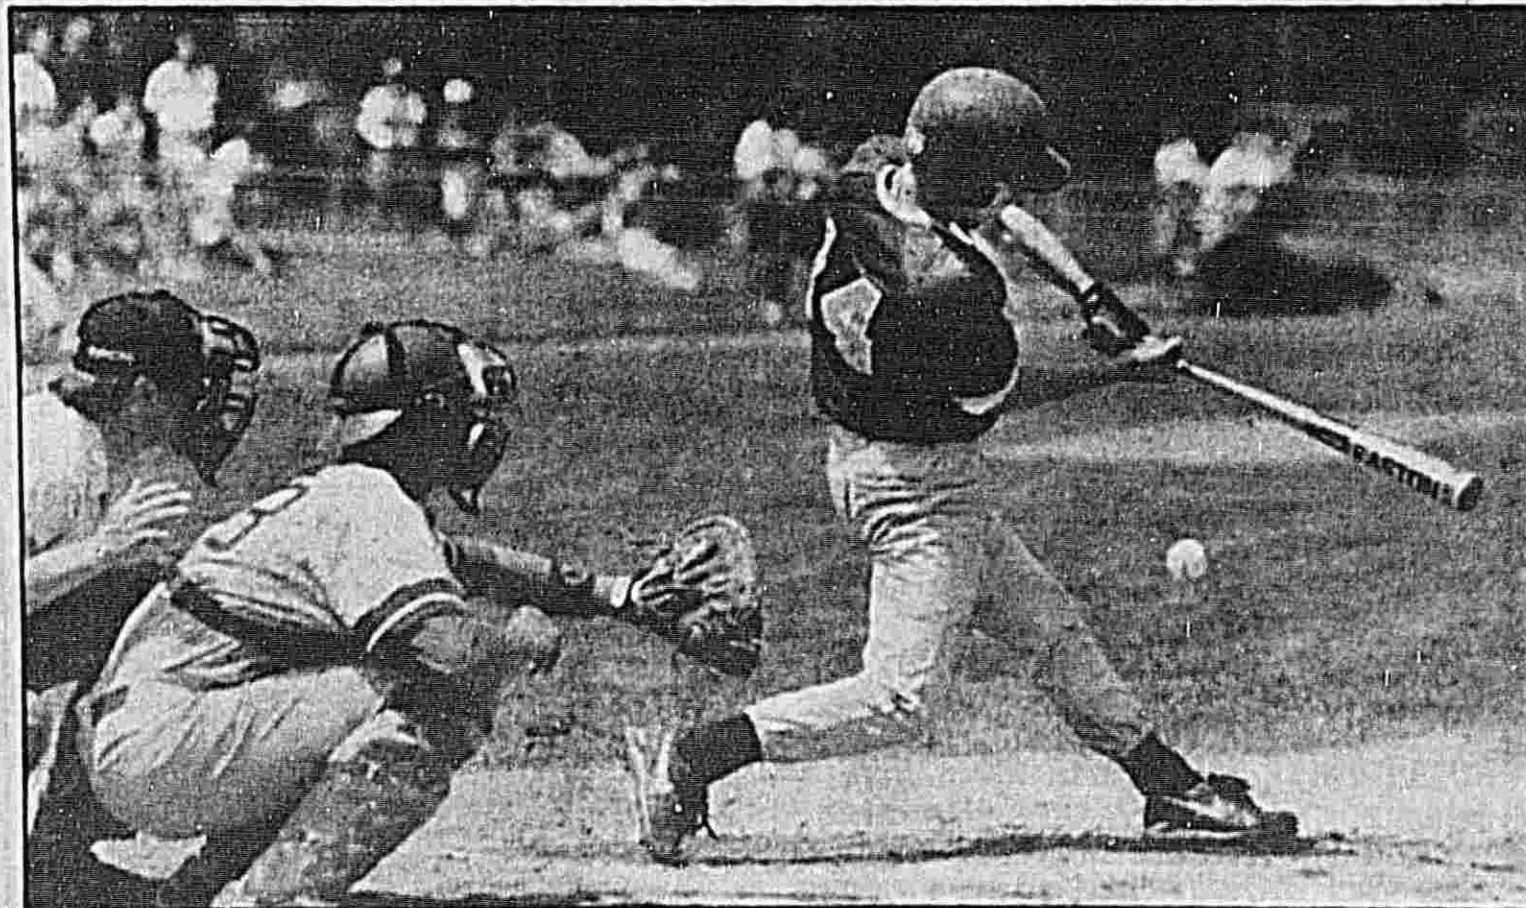

CHS loses leading hitter Ryan Dahm (.360 before Barrington), pitcher Andy Mikrut (5-3, 2 saves), and Pat Glynn (who finished the Cary-Grove game for the regional title).

The Corsairs have many key people back next year.

They include the double-play combination of Salata (.349 average, 16 stolen bases), at shortstop and Mike Burens at second base; first baseman Russell (7 stolen bases, .329 average); pitcher-infielder Scott Scripture and Ames; outfielder and Steve Golebiowski. (13 stolen bases).

Bufano ball is back, as are hints

STEVE PETERSON

Staff Reporter

It is a sunny Friday afternoon in early June. Ralph Bufano, although his voice does not allow him to be the vocal instructor this day, is in his element.

He is showing Mike Kaywood, who attends Carmel High School, the techniques of fielding a ground ball. Or he may be hitting flyballs to outfielders or giving batting tips.

A new season is dawning for the guru of Waukegan Midwest Baseball. Some 44 players, divided by age level, have reported to receive instruction from Bufano and his staff.

"I have pretty decent range, but would like to improve it. Ralph has helped me with transfer of weight in the batters' box and helping my hand placement," Brad Blankenship of Bentonville, Ark. said.

Blankenship plays for Northeast Missouri State, a Division IA school which had a 35-13 season.

Other players who will be wearing the new personalized Waukegan jerseys this summer are not as experienced - some are freshman and sophomores in high school.

Steve Spasojevich of McHenry is working with Bufano for the second straight year as a center fielder. "He just knows a lot about throwing properly - which way to turn on a ball. He says there are 14 different ways to approach different fly balls. Hitting is the main thing. That is the main reason I come to this team is to become a better hitter," Spasojevich said.

He was a member of the Fox Valley Conference champs. He was called up to the varsity for the regional and walked once in two at-bats.

"In the time we will train them for the next level," Bufano said.

The squads, a 15- and 16-year old coached by Tom Jackson as well as a staff of Joe Yodino of Chicago and Steve Kuchia will be assisting Bufano. Tournaments are planned for Kenosha, Kokomo, Ind. and Kentucky.

Bufano, who has been involved with the sport of baseball for some 40 years, did his annual visits to colleges this winter assisting players. He also worked with the Yankees and the Phillies' replacement players during the major league baseball players' strike. There was no shortage of willing ballplayers.

"We sent 128 home - mostly because they were out of shape," Bufano said.

Those who did make the rosters could have played if the major leaguers had not returned, he said.

While players from Arkansas to Lake Geneva, Wis. to Irwin, Mo. spend the summer in Waukegan, local players also seek additional instruction.

They include: Jim Groth of Antioch; D.J., Butenchoen of Antioch, John Butler of Gurnee, Pat Ewert of Lake Villa, Jason Meyers of Lake Villa, Mike Seitz of Island Lake (Wauconda High), Dan Watkins of Lindenhurst and Steve Witcraft of Vernon Hills, a Libertyville High standout and Todd Brandel of Vernon

Mike Kaywood works on his relay throw at second base. He is one of 44 players on the Waukegan Midwest All-Stars teams. Two squads are playing games and in tournaments this summer.

Two repeat for checker at Wilmot Kenosha's Allen Winker and Muskego's Dick Colburn led the big winners at Toft Auto Racing's Wilmot Speedway.

Winker scored his first 25-lap winged sprint main win of the season. Colburn, the defending Wilmot champion, took the $1,000 first prize in the Beine Excavating Spring Shootout.

Kenosha's Dennis Spitz remained perfect in modified competition by winning his third heat and third 20-lap headliner in as many outings.

Pointleader Rob Olson of Lake Villa, won his second 12-lap IMC modified main.

Ken Ratchford of Zion, won his first ever 15-lap Wilmot mini-sprint feature, giving him a sweep of Wisconsin Mini-Sprint Assn. mains as he also won June 2 at Chilton.

Kurt Davis led the first six laps of the sprint main. Coming out of turn two on lap seven, Davis hooked the cushion and popped a wheelie. The bobble allowed Winker to shoot his Winker Edge/Long's Truck Service/Dave's Muffler and Brake Shop No. 10W into the lead using the low line.

The race stayed green until pointleader Dave Moulis, who was bidding for a clean sweep, spun in turn one while engaged in a four-way battle for third with four laps to go.

"I thought I was in pretty good shape until the yellow came out," said Winker. "John Clemons, my crew chief, changed a torsion bar on the car and it really hooked up. I have to thank my wife, Marie, who stuck with me and my racing the past 15 years."

Colburn put the G and G Trucking/D.W. Demler

Landscaping/C and C Marketing No. 9 into the lead at the start of the 11-car Beine Excavating Shootout. The win was not without its moments for Colburn. A caution on lap 7 when Todd Daun, who was running second, broke a torsion bar and spun out of turn four, proved to be an answer to Colburn's prayers.

"I was just about to pull out because my safety belts had come loose," admitted Colburn. "Running without them isn't worth anything, not even $1,000. Then I looked up and saw the yellow and said, thank you Lord."

Colburn refastened the belts during the caution under a safety rule and restarted at the point which he never lost. Winker was second, Davis third.

A $4,000 first prize awaits the winner of the 40-lap feature in The Club/All Star Circuit of Champions Sprint Car Series event, June 9 at Toft Auto Racing's Wilmot Speedway.

A dozen different competitors have scored feature victories in the highly competitive national traveling spring car series.

The trip to the one-third mile "Wisconsin's Clay Center of Speed" marks the first Wisconsin stop of 1995 for the All Stars. The second is planned for Friday, Sept. 8.

Dale Blaney of Fowler, Ohio leads the All Star points as he shoots for his first national championship.

Dave Moulis of Johnsburg, 1992 Wilmot champion and current pointleader, has his lone career All Star win having come in last fall's All Star sanctioned 13th Annual Wilmot Open Sprints.

On Saturday, June 10, Wilmot will host Dave's American Muffler and Brake Shop of Kenosha Night. A full program of sprints, IMCA modifieds, mini-sprints and modifieds, plus the J&L Oil Modified Shootout is scheduled.

Racetime each night is 7 p.m. with gates opening at 6 p.m. and sprint time trials at 5 p.m. For information, call the 24-hour racelines at (414)862-2446 or (708)838-RACE, or trace office at (414)862-2458.

Wrigley Field hosts Gehrig day

The Chicago Cubs have designated Sunday, June 11, as Lou Gehrig Day at Wrigley Field. The Associate Board of the Les Turner ALS Foundation will sponsor a pre-game party at the Vic Theatre, 3145 N. Sheffield, Chicago, where a lucky fan will be selected to throw out the ceremonial first pitch at that afternoon's game between the Cubs and the Colorado Rockies.

Cost is $25 per person and includes food and drinks at the 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. pre-game party, a ticket to the 1:20 p.m. game and the chance to throw out the first pitch. WGN radio's David Kaplan will serve as honorary chairman.

This marks the 67th anniversary of Gehrig's grand slam over the right field wall in Wrigley Field as a high school senior when he led his Commerce High team past Lane Tech in a game between New York and Chicago high schools.

Diagnosed with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) in May, 1939, Gehrig died two years later of the disease which now bears his name.

Chicago plays host to 'Powerman Duathlon,' 'Mrs. T's Triathlon'

Two of the largest and most prestigious multi-sport events in the world are coming to Chicago this summer when the "Powerman Chicago Duathlon" and the "Mrs. T's Chicago Triathlon" are staged along the city's lakefront.

Each event is the U.S. National Championship in its sport. Together, they are expected to draw more than 7,500 professional and amateur competitors and some 100,000 spectators to Chicago.

The second annual Powerman Chicago Duathlon is scheduled for June 11, beginning at 7 a.m. More than 2,500 athletes are expected to compete in the run-bike-run competition, which will be contested in two distances.

The short distance will be a 4K run along Lake Michigan, followed by a 23K bike on Lake Shore Drive, and a 4K final run in Burnham Park. The long course event will be a 6K run, 46K bike and 12K run. Professionals will be competing for $15,000 in prize money.

The Powerman Chicago Duathlon is the National Champion of the sport of duathlon. As a result of this event, 12 amateur competitors in each age group will represent the U.S. at the World Championship.

The 13th annual Mrs. T's Chicago Triathlon, the largest triathlon in the world with a field of 5,000 expected this year, will kick-off at Chicago's Ohio Street Beach on Aug. 27, beginning at 6:30 a.m.

This year's event will be contested in two distances. The sprint includes a .75K swim in Lake Michigan, followed by a 24K bicycle ride on Lake Shore Drive, and finally a 5K run through Burnham Park. The Olympic Distance includes a 1.5K swim, a 40K bicycle ride and a 10K run. Professionals will be competing for $40,000 in prize money.

The Mrs. T's Chicago Triathlon this year plays host to the Triathlon Federation USA National Amateur Championship. As a result, the top 12 amateurs in each age group will represent the United States in the World Championships in Cancun, Mexico.

Water ski show at Lambs Farm celebrates 30 years

For the 30th consecutive year, Lambs Farm will host the first leg of the triple crown of American Ski Show Tournaments. The competition on Lambs Lake will be held June 18, Father's Day, from 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. with an awards ceremony following. Admission and parking are free.

Sanctioned by the American Water Ski Assn. as a Class "A" Competition, Lambs Farm's 30th annual Water Ski Show Tournament will feature Water Ski Clubs performing barefoot skiing, freestyle skiing, jumping and thrilling pyramid acts. All of the competing clubs are the top contenders for the National Show Skiing Championship and include many individual skiing champions.

The Lambs Farm Water Ski Show was first started in 1965, and the first tournament was held in 1975, coordinated by Dr. Harry and Mrs. Artis Price of Libertyville. Both continue to assist in the coordination of the tournament as it has grown.

An awards presentation immediately follows the tournament. Entertainment will continue on the lake during tabulation of scores prior to presentation of awards.

All of the farmyard's attractions—petting zoo, miniature passenger train, Old World carousel, 18-hole miniature golf course, fire truck ride, small animal nursery, and more, will be open.

Lambs Farm's Country Inn Restaurant will be serving a special Father's Day Champagne Brunch from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., featuring an all-you-care-to-eat brunch buffet with carved roast beef and ham, eggs, bacon, fresh fruit, muffins and dessert table. Cost is $13.95 for adults, $4.95 for children 10 and under.

For more information call 362-4636.

Sports celebrities host outing

Cincinnati Bengal Tom Waddle, and former Chicago Bears Ron Rivera and Jim Morrissey will host the 8th annual Celebrity Golf Outing for the Lake County Forest Preserves' Youth Conservation Corps on Wednesday, June 14 at 36-hole Countryside Golf Course near Mundelein. A number of other Bears and sports celebrities will be in attendance.

Proceeds benefit YCC, a summer conservation job program for Lake County teenagers between the ages of 16 and 18. Countryside Golf Course is located on Hawley, west of Rtes. 83 and 60 near Mundelein.

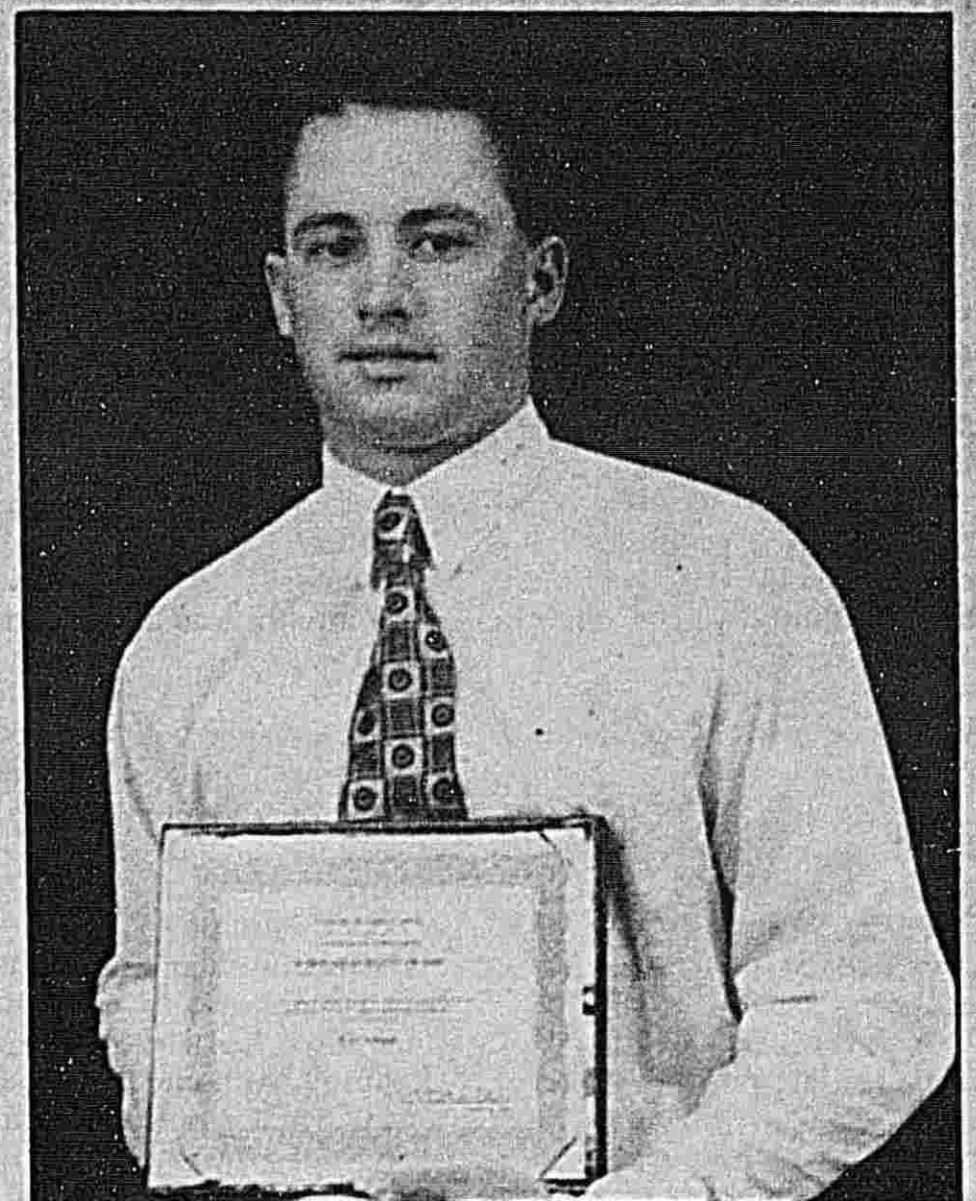

Opportunities for outdoor and indoor photography, interviews and video will be available. For more information, or to arrange an interview, contact Bob McCammon, Forest Preserve Supt. of Support Operations at 526-4782, ext. 26.

Perch fishing on hold in June

Illinois anglers are reminded that yellow perch fishing in Lake Michigan and the Calumet and Chicago rivers is closed for the month of June.

"This action is necessary to protect the Lake Michigan perch population and ensure a viable future for both sport and commercial perch fishing on the lake," said Conservation Director Brent Manning.

Drastic declines in Lake Michigan yellow perch populations in the last five years have prompted officials from the Michigan, Indiana and Wisconsin Departments of Natural Resources, and the Illinois Dept. of Conservation to unanimously support changes in sport and commercial fishing regulations. Illinois implemented the ban as part of an emergency rule that took effect April 1.

Scholar-Athlete

Scott Schupp of Grayslake won a Scholar-Athlete Award at the College of Lake County's annual Honors Convocation. The award recognizes Schupp's academic excellence and participation in athletics. He was among more than 50 CLC honor students recognized for their academic achievement. Honor students have attained a grade point average of at least 3.75 (out of 4.0) after completing 45 credit hours.

MHS to sponsor B-Ball camp

Lake County's largest youth basketball camp, the Mustang Camp, will be offered June 12-16 at Mundelein High School.

The summer camp will be open to boys in kindergarten through eighth-grade. The camp will be directed by Dennis Kessel.

Kindergarten through fifth-graders will practice from 8:30 to 11 a.m. Cost is $40. Sixth-through eighth-graders will practice from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. There will be a $5 per child reduction in fees for families with two or more children in the program.

The camp will emphasize the proper fundamentals and strive to develop the proper attitude toward dedication, commitment, aggressiveness and enthusiasm for winning basketball. The camp will also stress discipline, intensity and individual improvement.

For more information, call Mundelein High School's Athletic Office at 949-2200.
